Issue 33 | May 6th, 2013

"...(the Lord) said to him, 'Go home to your people and report to them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He had mercy on you.'" Mark 5:19

The Insider

Varsity Internship Program

Looking for an opportunity to earn college credits while getting paid? CIU graduate Sam Moore started the Varsity Internship Program in 1970. Students have the chance to earn money over the summer showing and selling the Bible in Stories. Visit varsityinternshipprogram.com/home/about-vip/the-reputation/ for more info.

CLEP Exams

Current CIU students must sign up before January 13, 2014, for CLEP exams with the Academic Success Center (earlier deadlines apply for students graduating in 2013). For questions and testing appointments, please contact the ASC, (803) 807.5611 or academicsuccess@ciu.edu.

Thanksgiving in Italy

Join Dr. Murray on the upcoming Southern Italy Study Tour.

- Dates: Nov 21 - Dec 2.
- Cost: $2,995 (three credits included)

For application and additional information, contact Elisabeth Davis: edavis@ciu.edu.

Cafeteria Breakfast Hours

As the result of a Student Senate survey, breakfast will now be served on Monday—Friday from 7:30 to 8:30 AM . The cafeteria room itself will continue to open at 7:00 AM for breakfast meetings, study and activity but food, cereal and coffee will not be available until 7:30 AM.

CIU Jobboard

The CIU JobBoard is our online job database exclusively for CIU students and alumni. Once registered and approved, you can search for full-time, part-time and seasonal (summer) jobs, internships and volunteer opportunities posted to CIU and College Central's National job database, see student worker job openings under Student Employment, view upcoming job fairs, build and upload up to 2 resumes, create a portfolio, and find lots of valuable career information. If you have any questions or need assistance, contact Stephanie Bryant, Director of Career Services (807-5076, sbryant@ciu.edu, Admin bldg – 2nd floor, 10-4).

Open IT Forum

The Open IT Forum for faculty and staff will be May 8, 3:45-4:30 PM, in Pamplin Auditorium. The following topics will be covered: Xerox Support Procedures, Service Level Agreement, Policies for personal devices, Self Help Initiatives (password resets, software installations, etc.), Preliminary look at Microsoft Office 2010, Summer Systems projects and improvements, Review IT Support Survey submissions, and General Q&A. All faculty and staff are encouraged to attend.

LaVega Christian School wants you!

Teachers are needed in the Dominican Republic. Gerald Durr will be in the Student Center on Monday, May 6, from noon to 5:00, to answer any questions about this missionary-sponsored Christian school.

Chapel Schedule

May 6 - 9

Monday, May 6

Advisor/Advisee

Tuesday, May 7

George Murray

Dr. George W. Murray was the President of CIU until July of 2007 when he became CIU's first Chancellor. In that role, he travels extensively throughout North America and internationally, speaking in conferences, recruiting students and working with major donors. He also teaches at CIU in the areas of preaching, missions and leadership.

Wednesday, May 8

Music Chapel

Rod Lewis

(UG — Shortess)

Application

(Grad/Sem — Hoke)

Thursday, May 9

Scripture/Music

Women's Soccer team in league Finals! Please come out and support the Rams!
Thursday, May 9th at 8 pm
Location: Behind Irmo Middle School