WILLIAM H. JONES
PRESIDENT

Dear prospective student,

INFLUENCE. Probably not the first word that comes to mind as you make your decision on where to further your education. Yet this word is actually one of the most important words to consider because no matter where you earn a higher academic degree, you will be influenced. Let me explain.

You perhaps have friends who attended colleges where the influence of the world eroded their Christian convictions. Whether through the influence of a faculty member or roommate, eventually their love for the Lord Jesus grew cool.

At CIU, we will influence you as well. But not from the perspective of the world. We want to influence you from the perspective of the Word of God. We desire to provide you with the education you need to further your education, and develop Christlike character in your life — the whole life training you need to serve the Lord.

INFLUENCE. It's an important word. Come to CIU and let us influence you, as you influence the world for Christ.

This catalog contains information about studying and living at CIU. But it may not tell you everything you want to know. If we can help you personally, please call (800) 777-2227 or e-mail the Admissions Office at Admissions@ciu.edu to discuss your specific needs or questions with one of our counselors.

Warmly in Christ,

William H. Jones
President

Introducing Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions

This catalog is not a contract. Every effort has been made to reflect accurately the curricular programs and degree requirements at the time of publication. But the Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions reserves the right to change curricula and requirements at any time.

Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions admits students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin.

INTRODUCING COLUMBIA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY SEMINARY & SCHOOL OF MISSIONS

University Setting

Columbia International University (CIU) is a multi-denominational Christian higher education institution dedicated to preparing world Christians to serve God with excellence.

Its three higher education schools: the Undergraduate School, the Graduate School, and the Seminary & School of Missions, offer postsecondary degree programs ranging from Associate of Arts to Doctor of Ministry. All postsecondary programs emphasize spiritual formation, mastery of biblical content and interpretation skills, cultivation of a biblical worldview, and ministry skills development, the latter through field education and internship experiences.

In its residence programs, CIU serves students from 44 states and more than 32 foreign countries, although the majority of students come from five southeastern states. More than 35 church denominations and independent fellowships are represented in the faculty and student body. The majority of CIU graduates serve in vocational Christian ministry roles, including approximately 25 percent of CIU graduates who serve in cross-cultural contexts.

Distance Education courses serve several hundred additional students, both graduate and undergraduate, in the United States and around the world.

Other CIU ministries include Ben Lippen School (K4-12) and two radio stations WMHK in Columbia, S.C., and WRCM in Charlotte, N.C.

The mission of Columbia International University is to serve Christ and His church by inspiring, developing, and equipping people for the lifelong pursuit of God and servant leadership in His global cause.

History and Mission

Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions was organized in 1936 as the graduate division of Columbia Bible College, established in South Carolina's capital city in 1923. From its beginning, the school has emphasized the preparation of men and women for overseas missionary service.

In 1947 the graduate division became the Graduate School of Missions. From 1973 until 1987, the seminary was known as the Columbia Graduate School of Bible & Missions, emphasizing our commitment to prepare men and women for biblically-based ministries both in North America and overseas. This emphasis now is expressed in our name Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions (abbreviated to CIU SSM in this catalog). CIU SSM is one of the schools in the higher education division of Columbia International University.

CIU SSM and its parent university occupy a 400-acre campus with forests and lakes on the north side of Columbia, the 200-year-old capital of South Carolina. Combining the convenience and challenge of an adjacent urban area with the charm and serenity of the South, the locale provides an environment ideal for study, ministry, and reflection.

With a well qualified faculty and resources for learning, students find the incentive and curricular guidance necessary for progress toward their goals. Through the spiritual, academic, social, and physical dimensions of CIU SSM life, students come "to know Him" better and "to make Him known" more effectively. Together we recognize that God's purpose for CIU SSM corporately and for its faculty and students individually only can be achieved by the Holy Spirit working supernaturally through yielded believers.

At CIU SSM, implementation of the corporate purpose is expressed in the following statement:

The mission of Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions is to equip Great Commission Christians to minister in multicultural communities.

Your study at the Seminary & School of Missions is intended to transform your life. You will have many formal and informal experiences which help you grow in maturity academically, spiritually, and in your skills for ministry. Opportunities exist not only through courses and fellowship offered by the Seminary & School of Missions, but also through your church, through evangelistic and missions projects, and through conferences. Your faculty advisor will help you design a program to make the

The curriculum and community life of the school are designed to provide a dynamic context in which the student is assisted and encouraged to:

Know Christ by learning submission to His lordship and dependence on the Holy Spirit, thus making progress in conforming to His image;

Know the Word by gaining mastery of its content and understanding of its meaning, by assimilating and applying its truth and developing skill in the use of study tools;

Know Oneself by an increasing awareness of spiritual gifts and personal potential;

Know People by becoming sensitive to their needs, the context in which they live and by improving competence in communicating with them, whatever their culture; most of this time of equipping. The prayer and goal of the faculty is that at the end of your studies with us you will demonstrate significant growth in the following areas so you are better able to know Him and to make Him known.

Know the Skills required in one's area of service.

You will know, interpret and apply the Bible and will develop a theology. That is, you will be able to explain the basic contours of Bible survey, affirm biblical priorities, and demonstrate skill in Bible interpretation and application. You will be able to explain your identity in Christ and the basic doctrines of systematic theology. You will also be able to articulate a Christian life and worldview and demonstrate skill in evaluating and applying theology.

You will be committed to developing yourself spiritually and to helping others grow in their relationship with Christ. That is, you will be able to articulate a biblical theology of spiritual gifts and affirm a sense of calling. You will exhibit a biblical theology of spiritual gifts and affirm a sense of calling. You will exhibit basic discipleship qualities and will practice essential spiritual and personal disciplines. You will exhibit the qualities of a theologian, exhibit and explain biblical personal qualities, and exhibit biblical relational qualities.

You will possess skills which will enable you to minister effectively in your church, mission, or marketplace role. That is, you will demonstrate skill in personal discipleship, in communicating biblical truth, and in analyzing culture. You will demonstrate sensitivity and skill in cross-cultural ministry, commitment and skill in evangelism, and a commitment to the local church. You will also be able to work effectively in emotionally mature relationships with others and demonstrate biblical leadership skills.

You will be keenly aware of and actively involved in God's work around the world through His Church. That is, you will exhibit multicultural ministry sensitivity and an eternal perspective, and you will be able to explain God's global movement through the ages.

In brief, we want to help you grow in your ability to think biblically and theologically, grow spiritually, minister effectively, and make an impact globally.

Doctrinal Standard

The following, together with other Christian principles of doctrine and practice, including the affirmation of the full trustworthiness of Scripture, which in its original writing was verbally inspired and without error, shall be the basis of faith and doctrine of Columbia International University:

1. The Bible is the inspired Word of God, the written record of His supernatural revelation of Himself to man, absolute in its authority, complete in its revelation, final in its content and without any error in its teaching.
2. All men in their natural state are lost, alienated from God, spiritually dead: "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23).
3. Salvation is only by grace, a free gift of God, through faith in the Lord Jesus, who died for our sins according to the Scriptures (1 Cor. 15:3). Those who thus receive Christ by faith have their sins forgiven (Eph.1:7), their hearts cleansed (Acts 15:9), are born of the Spirit, become children of God (John 1:12, 13), and are made new creatures in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17).
4. God is One God, Who reveals Himself in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ, as the Scriptures affirm, is the Son of God and Son of Man, was born of a virgin, and is Himself very God. The Scriptures also declare the deity and personality of the Holy Spirit.
5. Our Lord Jesus rose from the dead in the same body that was laid to rest in the tomb (John 20:25-27). The bodies of all believers who die will be raised from the dead and they will receive an incorruptible body like His glorious body (1 Cor. 15:53; Phil. 3:21). All other men shall be raised unto "the resurrection of judgment" (John 5:28, 29).
6. Christians, born of the Spirit, are to live the new life in the present power of the Spirit. "If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk" (Gal. 5:16-25; Col. 2:6). The Christian's responsibility and his normal attitude of life is to yield to God (Rom. 6:13), trusting God to keep him.
7. Christian "living" includes Christian service, the winning of souls around us, and the preaching of the gospel in the uttermost parts of the earth. In carrying on this work there is needed the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit which is granted to every believer as he yields and trusts (Acts 1:8;

1 Cor. 12:7; Eph. 3:20; Acts 5:32). And in all of this service, prayer is to have the central place (John 14:12-14; Eph. 6:18, 19).

8. Jesus Christ will come again to earth the second time (Heb. 9:28): personally (Acts 1:11; 1 Thess. 4:16), bodily (Acts 1:11; Col. 2:9) and visibly (Matt. 26:64; Rev. 1:7). His coming will precede the age of universal peace and righteousness foretold in the Scriptures (Matt. 24:29, 30, 42; 2 Thess. 2:7, 8; Rev. 20:1-6). (Candidates for graduation need not affirm the premillennial position.)

Denominational Relationships

Although CIU SSM is denominationally unaffiliated, it seeks to serve a variety of evangelical denominations and independent congregations.

- CIU SSM prepares students to return to the denomination or church tradition that nurtured them.
- The CIU SSM curriculum makes provision for church polity courses taught by ministers who represent various denominations.
- CIU SSM provides for elective courses on denominational distinctives as desired by various groups.
- Education for ministry at CIU SSM is widely accepted. CIU SSM is accredited by both the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) and the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). Our graduates serve in over 40 different denominations.
- The CIU SSM faculty and student body reflect church affiliations across a broad spectrum of North American and non-North American denominations and church fellowships.
- Students find exposure to persons from various ecclesiastical traditions who are united in their commitment to evangelical orthodoxy to be an enriching and beneficial experience.
- Ordination requirements vary. Each student who plans to seek ordination is responsible to configure his or her program so as to meet the specific requirements for the local church, association or denomination in which ordination is sought.
- The following ecclesiastical affiliations typically are represented in the CIU SSM student body by three or more students:
 - African Methodist Episcopal
 - Assemblies of God
 - Brethren in Christ Church
 - Christian and Missionary Alliance
 - Church of God (Anderson, Indiana)
 - Conservative Baptist Association

Programs of Study

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Community expectation (evangelical or secular) does not ultimately determine the meaning of a degree from CIU SSM. We are responsible to define our own purpose and establish our own achievement standards.

All CIU SSM degree programs are intended to help students prepare for Christian ministry. Criteria for granting a degree, therefore, are designed to reflect the student's character and the student's competence in both general and professional areas.

Commitment to whole-life training designed to prepare Christians "to know Him and to make Him known" means that earning a degree from CIU SSM involves more than meeting academic requirements. Graduating students also must reflect appropriate achievement of CIU SSM educational objectives including evidence of personal morality, positive interpersonal and family relationships, and local church involvement. Although educational objectives cannot be measured with complete objectivity, we believe valid, fair, and useful assessment is possible and necessary.

To qualify for a degree, students must demonstrate an accurate understanding of basic biblical doctrines and be in agreement with the institution's doctrinal statement (with the exception of section 8, which is not required). The student must also demonstrate an accurate understanding of and commitment to the inerrancy of the Scriptures.

Know Christ by Learning Submission to His Lordship and Dependence on the Holy Spirit

THE BUILDING BLOCK APPROACH

For most students, the CIU SSM faculty believes the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) is the degree program of choice because:

- The M.Div. curriculum affords the most thorough training for ministry leadership.
- The M.Div. degree is the stated or preferred qualification for ordination in many churches.
- The M.Div. degree is prerequisite for continuing professional development in any accredited Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) program.

Nevertheless, the Biblical Ministry Certificate and Master of Arts programs are each complete in themselves and may best meet the needs of some students. The programs are specifically designed so that students may begin in the certificate program and later use their courses to proceed to an M.A. or M.Div. degree, as illustrated below:

Programs for Students with or without Previous Bible Training:

Each degree program is offered in two formats: Program 1 for college or university graduates with no previous studies in Bible or theology, and Program 2 for Bible college graduates or college graduates who have at least 30 semester hours of Bible, theology or church history.

Programs for College and University Graduates: Program 1

(Without an Undergraduate Major in Bible)

Purpose: To provide –

- globally focused, multicultural ministry training for university graduates whose previous study has not included biblical and theological disciplines.
- ministry training for persons, perhaps in mid-life, who are changing careers.
- opportunity for personal development through careful study of the Scriptures and application of biblical truth to life and ministry.
- opportunity to test one's call to vocational Christian service through ministry studies and supervised experience.

Programs for Bible College Graduates:

Program 2

(With an Undergraduate Major in Bible/Theology)

Purpose: To provide –

- advanced ministry preparation which acknowledges and builds on prior studies in Bible, theology, and church history;
- specialized training for those who intend to serve in another culture;
- professional development for persons in ministry who desire the refreshment and growth stimulated by advanced studies; or,
- advanced training in biblical studies.

Objective:

The Program 2 curriculum has been constructed to ensure adequate coverage and balance in essential areas of preparation for ministry without unwarranted duplication of prior study. Where duplication occurs, a student may petition to substitute another course in the same discipline field.

Entrance Requirements:

In addition to those requirements listed in the Admissions section of the catalog, applicants for Program 2 must have a baccalaureate degree from an institution accredited by the Association of Biblical Higher Education or a minimum of 30 semester hours of previous study in Bible, theology, and/or church history from a regionally accredited college or university.

Students with 18-29 semester hours of previous biblical and theological studies from an accredited institution may enroll in CIU SSM as a non-degree student and complete the BIB/THE/HIS courses necessary to reach the 30 semester hour minimum for entrance in to Program 2. Hours used to meet entrance requirements, however, may not be applied toward degree completion. Once a student has met the 30 hour minimum, he or she may apply for entrance into a Program 2 degree using the Degree Change form available from the CIU SSM Dean's Office (Schuster 140).

Requirements to Receive a CIU SSM Degree

General Requirements (all Programs):

- Completion of one of the prescribed curricula with a minimum 2.3 cumulative GPA. Although faculty advisors assist students in planning their course of studies, it is the student's responsibility to ensure that all requirements for graduation have been met.
- Read the entire English Bible following admission, counting selections assigned in Bible courses. This requirement must be completed six weeks prior to graduation and affirmed as part of the Application for Graduation available from the CIU Records Office. (Not applicable to D.Min. or Biblical Ministry Certificate.)
- Approval of Candidacy (Not applicable to Biblical Ministry Certificate students; see details below.)
- Significant achievement of CIU SSM objectives (see University and Seminary Overview).
- Affirmation of the Doctrinal Statement, except section 8. (See details below.)

Program 1 Requirements:

- M.A., M.A.ICS, M.A.BE, M.A.EdM, M.A.LEM (60 hours): Minimum of 30 semester hours completed in residence; 12 of the last 18 hours taken as CIU SSM courses.
- M.A.PC (69 hours): Minimum of 36 semester hours completed in residence; 12 of the last 18 hours taken as CIU SSM courses.
- M.Div. (90 hours): Minimum of 30 semester hours completed in residence; 24 of the last 30 hours taken as CIU SSM courses.

Program 2 Requirements:

- M.A. (30 hours): Minimum of 15 semester hours, completed in residence; 9 of the last 15 hours taken as CIU SSM courses.
- M.A.ICS, M.A.BE, M.A.EdM, M.A.LEM (51 hours): Minimum of 27 hours completed in residence; 12 of the last 18 hours taken as CIU SSM courses.
- M.A.PC (60 hours): Minimum of 30 semester hours completed in residence; 12 of the last 18 hours taken as CIU SSM courses.
- M.Div. (75 hours): Minimum of 27 hours completed in residence; 24 of the last 30 hours taken as CIU SSM courses.

Doctor of Ministry Requirements:

- D.Min. (30 hours): Minimum of 24 semester hours must be completed through CIU SSM.

Degree Candidacy

Purpose:

Approximately halfway through the student's degree program, both the faculty of CIU SSM and the student evaluate the student's progress in achieving Seminary objectives (see the University and Seminary Overview section of this catalog) related to personal development in the areas of spiritual maturity, biblical and theological knowledge, and ministry skills. Admission to candidacy indicates that the student is making progress in each of these areas and is approved to proceed toward graduation. Although a final academic evaluation is made by the Records Office in the last semester before graduation, once a student becomes a candidate for a degree, it is anticipated that when all requirements are met, the student will be qualified to graduate.

Procedure:

1. Students are responsible to make application for degree candidacy at the appropriate point in their curricula as indicated within the Academic Programs of Study pages. This application will include completing a personal inventory and nominating several peers to complete a similar inventory. The Admission to Candidacy application form is available from the Faculty Secretary's Office.
2. Evaluations of each student are received from the Field Education department and the Student Life department. The application, together with supporting information, is forwarded to the student's faculty advisor who recommends action on the student's application.
3. Action on the application for candidacy is taken by the CIU SSM dean. Students not admitted to candidacy normally terminate their enrollment. Reinstatement as an enrolled student will be considered only if qualifications for candidacy are subsequently met.

Time Limitation:

The time limitation for completion of all requirements for master's level degrees is five years, measured from the date a student is admitted to candidacy.

Doctrinal Statement:

A student will not be admitted to candidacy for a degree who denies any of the doctrines as stated in the official doctrinal statement, affirms error in Scripture, or believes in the ultimate salvation of all persons. The only exception is that a candidate need not affirm the pre-millennial position in section 8 of the doctrinal statement.

Earning Two Degrees at CIU SSM

Although CIU SSM offers five Ministry Leadership degrees at the master's level, it offers only one General Theological Studies M.A. No formal concentrations are offered in the M.A., and only one M.A. may be earned.

Requirements for possible double degree programs are outlined below. In order to satisfy the curricular requirements for each degree, a student's total hours may exceed the minimums indicated. The degrees may be completed in either order, either simultaneously or sequentially.

M.Div. and the Master of Arts – A student must:

- Satisfy curricular requirements for both degrees.
- Complete satisfactorily the integrative exercise of the M.A.
- Complete satisfactorily the internship requirement for the M.Div.

MASTER OF ARTS IN VARIOUS MINISTRY LEADERSHIP AREAS

CIU SSM offers five degrees in various areas of ministry leadership. In order to earn the specific degree, Program 1 students must complete 60 semester hours of study, including the 30 semester hours of courses in the ethos core as well as the courses listed for the particular concentration.

Program 2 students must complete 51 semester hours of study, including the courses listed for the particular concentration as well as a reduced ethos core (21 semester hours).

MASTER OF ARTS IN INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

The Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies (M.A.ICS) is designed to provide graduates with the requisite skills necessary for successful cross-cultural ministry as they relate to pre-field orientation, entry strategies to new cultures, early and mature cross-cultural church planting, and leadership development. Students will integrate classroom studies with cross-cultural field-work programs under the guidance of ministry mentors. This degree prepares students for ministry roles such as field missionary, church mission pastor, mission area coordinator, church ethnic ministry coordinator, or international development worker.

MASTER OF ARTS IN PASTORAL COUNSELING AND SPIRITUAL FORMATION

The Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling and Spiritual Formation (M.A.PCSF) program is designed to train men and women to come alongside Christians and non-Christians and help them understand their lives and issues from God's perspective. Using the redemptive and healing truths of Scripture along with the relational aspects of biblical community, the Pastoral Counselor will help people grow into spiritual and emotional maturity through biblical understanding, inner healing, relational authenticity, and spiritual formation. The Pastoral Counselor is trained not only to address the personal "sticking" points in a person's emotional and spiritual development, but also to identify the stages of spiritual development in a church or institution and to lead people to the next stage of spiritual and emotional maturity. Pastoral counselors will be trained to lead in spiritual formation, marriage, small group, recovery, lay counseling, pastoral counseling, mercy, and cross-cultural ministries.

The graduate of this program will be prepared for certification with the American Association of Pastoral Counselors.

MASTER OF DIVINITY

The Master of Divinity degree is designed to equip graduates for ministerial leadership in a multicultural world. It lays a solid biblical, theological, and historical foundation for ministry, provides preparation in the essential skills needed for ministry, and builds understandings which enable effective ministry in a target culture or in multicultural communities.

The Master of Divinity is the academic preparation most frequently required for ministerial ordination.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Purpose:

The purpose of the Doctor of Ministry degree is to develop the student's knowledge, theoretical clarity, and competence in the practice of ministry. The program is designed for persons who hold the M.Div. degree or its equivalent and who have significant experience in pastoral or cross-cultural ministry. The student will build on previous studies and ministry experiences to attain higher levels of competency.

This degree program is designed to advance students' knowledge of the foundations of and current developments in ministry, to deepen their understanding of their philosophy of ministry, to enhance their ability to function professionally, to increase their capacity to think and act purposefully in ministry, and to strengthen their spiritual and moral integrity. Demonstration of significant progress in these areas is an essential ingredient of the program. Progress is observed through a constant mentoring relationship with an assigned member of the Seminary faculty.

Admission Requirements:

- A Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree with a minimum B average. An applicant who does not hold the M.Div. degree, but who has completed another graduate theological degree and believes he or she has theological training equivalent to an M.Div., may submit evidence of work completed to the Director of Admissions for assessment.
- At least three years of active involvement in ministry subsequent to completion of M.Div. studies. Applicants to the Missions concentration are required to meet this requirement in active cross-cultural ministry unless their primary assignment is North American missions administration.
- A completed Doctor of Ministry application, including forms and instructions available through the Admissions Office.
- International students must demonstrate proficiency in the use of the English language.
- Any additional requirements set by the CIU SSM faculty or the Admissions Office.

Program Summary:

Each student is assigned a faculty mentor who guides the student in designing a professional development program suited to his or her previous educational and ministry experience, interests and ministry goals. Program requirements include:

MIN 9431 Spiritual Mentoring	3 semester hours
Individualized Program of Studies:	18 semester hours
Doctoral Research Seminar:	3 semester hours
Professional Research Project:	6 semester hours
Oral Review of the Research Project
PROGRAM TOTAL:	30 semester hours

Academic Information:

The Individualized Program of Studies must be appropriate to the concentration and must be approved by the student's faculty mentor. Twenty-four hours of studies (including the dissertation-project) must be at the 9000-level. No more than six semester hours of transfer credit and no more than six semester hours of independent course credit may be applied toward degree requirements. Of the required 24 semester course hours, 12 must be resident hours. All degree requirements must be completed within six years of initial enrollment in the Doctor of Ministry program unless an extension is requested and granted.

Candidacy:

Advancement to candidacy occurs when the student has successfully completed all degree requirements except the professional research project.

Concentrations:

► Leadership

The concentration in Leadership is designed to prepare individuals to lead effectively in church and para-church ministries. This concentration emphasizes character and competency development in alignment with one's calling.

► Missions

The concentration in Missions addresses the professional development of persons in international or cross-cultural ministries.

► Preaching

The concentration in Preaching is designed to develop those who preach regularly to a higher level of expertise in their ability to prepare and deliver sermons that are biblically and theologically astute while being relevant and practical.

► Member Care

The concentration in Member Care addresses the professional development of persons who are providing ministerial and/or therapeutic care for missionaries. Note: Students wishing to take this concentration will begin and end their course work in cohort groups which will function as a learning community. The cohorts will begin as enrollment and staffing permit. Please check with the Admissions Office as to when the next cohort will begin.

► Military Chaplaincy

The concentration in Military Chaplaincy is designed to assist chaplains in developing a higher level of expertise in their ministries to men and women in the armed forces. Note: For those U.S. Army Chaplains who have successfully completed the Chaplain Basic Course and the Chaplain Advanced Course, up to 12 semester hours of that work will be accepted as transfer credit.

Know Yourself by an increasing awareness of spiritual gifts and personal potential.

Academic Life

ACADEMIC LIFE

Academic Catalog and Degree Change

A student's program is governed by the catalog under which he or she was admitted. Students desiring to change degrees or concentrations within a degree must request approval through a Degree Change Application form (available from the CIU SSM Dean's Office in Schuster 140). Should a student break matriculation for two consecutive regular terms, the catalog in effect at the time of re-admission to CIU SSM must be used to satisfy the requirements for the degree.

Academic Load

The SSM faculty has defined "full-time study" as a minimum of 24 semester hours during an academic year. Students may divide those hours over the four terms of the academic year as they wish. Most students take at least nine hours during the fall semester and at least nine hours during the spring semester. They complete the remaining hours during the winter and/or summer terms. See the Student Financial Services pages for the way in which eligibility for financial aid and on-campus housing relates to academic load.

Academic Petitions

CIU SSM provides a petitioning procedure through which students may be granted exceptions to the general rules included in the catalog. It is the responsibility of the student who seeks consideration to complete the petitioning process. Instructions for filing an academic petition are available outside the door of the CIU SSM Dean's Office (Schuster 140). In cases where an exception might affect the student's eligibility to enroll in a particular course, the student should begin the petitioning process during the previous term and gain final approval of the petition no later than the "add" deadline of the term involved.

Academic Probation

A student whose grade-point average (GPA) for a semester falls below 2.3 is placed on academic probation for the following semester, during which the student is allowed to register for no more than 9.5 semester hours. At his discretion, the dean may limit enrollment to fewer than 9.5 hours. If the student's cumulative GPA by the end of the subsequent semester does not improve so that graduation is assured, enrollment normally is terminated. The student must reapply through the CIU SSM Admissions Office and must provide evidence to the dean that he or she can expect to be academically successful. A student on academic probation may not participate in musical groups (except as part of MUS 5503, 5513). Employment also may be limited.

Advanced Standing

Although CIU SSM does not accept transfer credit from unaccredited institutions, a student may request advanced standing at CIU SSM for courses completed at an unaccredited institution. Advanced standing may be awarded either "with credit" or "without credit." Advanced standing without credit entitles the student to waive a curricular requirement in a field previously studied at an unaccredited school and substitute an advanced course at CIU SSM in the same field. Advanced standing with credit satisfies the graduation requirement for which advanced standing is awarded. Advanced standing with credit is awarded only on the basis of written or oral examination administered at CIU SSM. Advanced standing with credit may not be applied toward graduation requirements in the Program 2 Master of Arts degree.

Advanced Standing is available under the following conditions:

- With the exception of internship courses, advanced standing with credit may be granted for any course offered at CIU SSM appropriate to the student's degree program, including free electives.
- Application for advanced standing must be made within one year of matriculation into CIU SSM.
- No more than one-sixth of the requirements of any degree program may be credited through advanced standing;

An approved Proficiency Exam Authorization form must be submitted to the Registrar's Office with evidence that the student has paid the non-refundable examination fee of $50. Competency must be demonstrated by scoring at least 77 percent on a one-time only written and/or oral assessment to be administered by the professor of record of the given course, with final approval granted by the dean.

Students may not receive advanced standing credit for a course they have audited at CIU SSM.

Auditing

Most courses may be audited with permission of the instructor and approval of the faculty advisor and registrar. No credit is recorded and an auditing fee is charged. Registration forms may be located in the Registrar's Office.

Classes, Examinations, and Assignments

Assignments: Due dates for research papers, book reports, and other assignments normally are indicated in the course syllabus. The student is responsible to plan and pace work so that assignments will be submitted when due. Exceptions to the schedule established for a course are at the discretion of the instructor. Late work may not be accepted, although in rare cases an instructor may permit a pre-arranged extension.

Class Attendance: Because of the commitment made by accepted applicants and the intensive nature of the programs, it is assumed that students will attend all classes.

Course Numbering and Scheduling: Each course has three letters indicating the area of study and four digits. The number in parenthesis after the course title indicates its semester hour credit value. A course may be cancelled if enrollment does not meet a standard set by the dean's office.

Courses are scheduled in daytime, evening, and weekend formats on a rotating basis. See information posted outside the dean's office. Since programs emphasize training for vocational Christian service which often involves considerable weekend ministry, Monday is reserved for study, research and reflection.

Period Examinations: Period tests are scheduled in the course syllabus. If a student misses a test for an approved reason, a make-up test must be taken within one week after return to class.

Re-examinations: A student desiring to retake a final examination may petition the instructor who, under exceptional circumstances, may grant the request. Re-examinations must be taken within two weeks after the receipt of grades. The grade obtained on the retaken examination will not carry the same value as the original final examination.

Commencement

All requirements for graduation normally must be met before the student may participate in commencement exercises. Under certain circumstances the student may be eligible to participate in commencement before all requirements have been completed.

All internship plans must be approved by April 15 of the year in which the student plans to participate in commencement. Registration forms must be completed and internship requirements (including the submission of all written reports and evaluations) must be completed by the last day of summer semester following the commencement in which the student participates.

Credits

Graduate-level Credit for Undergraduate Courses: Under certain circumstances, Undergraduate School courses may be taken for CIU SSM credit. College junior- and senior-level courses with no parallel at CIU SSM and which, in content, are appropriate for graduate-level credit, may qualify. Prior to course registration, students must submit to the Registrar's Office, an approved faculty directed study with a graduate course assignment which outlines the course involved as well as additional assignments that validate graduate level credit.

Independent Course Credit: CIU SSM permits up to half of an M.A. and two-thirds of an M.Div. degree program be earned through independent courses. The one-half program limit applies even when two degrees are earned. Since the Biblical Ministry Certificate is not a degree, it is exempt from this restriction.

Music Credit: CIU SSM students are allowed the following maximum semester hours of music (choir, band, private and class music lessons) to count toward graduation requirements:

30 semester hour program.....	2 semester hours
60 semester hour program.....	3 semester hours
90 semester hour program.....	4 semester hours

Students may take more hours of music for credit, but they will not count toward graduation.

Educational Resources

Academic & Disability Services: Each student is assigned an academic advisor. The academic advising program is intended to foster a relationship between faculty members and individual students as a context for growth toward the academic, spiritual, and vocational goals of their seminary program. In addition to pre-registration and registration periods, students meet with their academic advisors during two to three chapel periods each semester. Students are encouraged to approach their academic advisor, however, whenever they desire academic or spiritual advice.

CIU is committed to providing equal educational opportunities for all students and assisting them in making their university experience successful. In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, we provide reasonable accommodations for students with currently documented disabilities. (For most disabilities current is defined as within three years.) Requests for accommodations should be made to the Academic & Disability Services office, (803) 807-5612 (from on campus ext. 5612), at least 30 working days prior to the first day of class to help ensure the quality and availability of services needed. Questions regarding requirements for qualifying documentation and disability accommodations should be directed to Academic & Disability Services.

Bookstore: A campus bookstore, operated by Founders Bookstores, provides new and used textbooks, school supplies, reference books, Bibles, publications by popular Christian authors, faculty publications, gift and novelty items, CDs by favorite artists, CIU clothing, and other CIU imprinted items. It also offers a large selection of snack items and Seattle's Best Coffee. Students may benefit from Book Buy Backs offered at the end of each semester.

Computing Lab: The Computing Lab is located in the Joy Ridderhoff Building. It has an open lab and a computer classroom with approximately 50 computers available. The computers run on a Microsoft network and use Windows as the operating systems. Microsoft Office 2007 is available on each computer with other software applications such as WordPerfect, MS Works, Biblio 8, Bible Works. Photo editing software is available on select computers. One digital editing computer is also available for student use. Black and white printing as well as color printing is available in the lab. Other services include scanning, CD burning, and Internet access. Registered students will receive their lab account information via CIUOnline.com e-mail. Those who do not receive their lab account information via e-mail should see the lab front desk and complete a Student User Login Application. Lab Operators are available to help students with various computing needs. The lab is generally open from 7 a.m. – 12 midnight Monday through Thursday, and from 8 a.m. – 9 p.m. Friday through Saturday. It is closed on Sundays and during the 10:45 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. chapel period Tuesday through Friday. For additional information, contact the Front Desk at (803) 807-5147 or visit www.ciu.edu/scc.

Copy Center: A school-maintained copy center processes printing requests for faculty, staff, and students on a time available basis. Printing services available include resumes, prayer letters, prayer cards, and wedding invitations and announcements.

G. Allen Fleece Library: The library provides a collection of over 150,000 print and non-print items, 400 print journals and print journal back issues representing over 1,000 titles. In addition, access to over 60 electronic databases, many of which are full text, is available through the library website and at the computer work stations in the library. The library participates in an interlibrary loan program through the Online Computer Library Center network of over 59,000 libraries worldwide.

The library supports membership in numerous national and specialized library associations as well as the Online computer Library Center network (OCLC), the Partnership Among South Carolina Academic Libraries (PASCAL), and the Christian Library Consortium (CLC), and has membership in the American Theological Library Association (ATLA) and the Association of Christian Librarians (ACL).

Visit www.ciu.edu/library for more information.

Ministry Resource Department: The Ministry Resource Department (MRD) is a department of the G. Allen Fleece Library that houses and circulates teaching resources primarily for use in evangelism, discipleship, and teaching outreach. Our holdings of more than 10,000 resources includes CDs, biblical costumes, biblical and modern day maps, models, overhead transparencies, flannel graph, pictures and posters, international costumes, artifacts, puppets, and video recordings. Although a portion of the collection is in a format which can be described as high-tech media, the emphasis of this collection is on low-tech resources useful for the hundreds of small churches in the Columbia area, and culturally appropriate for use in less developed countries. The MRD also has a production area where patrons can make their own resources, and a Curriculum Materials Center housing two collections: sample church curriculum from approximately 60 evangelical publishing companies, and K-6 Elementary Education curriculum.

Faculty Directed Study

Faculty Directed Study provides the student an opportunity to pursue, under the direction of a CIU SSM faculty member, areas of study beyond the stated curriculum which are of interest and relevance to the student's academic and vocational goals.

Students wishing to register for a Faculty Directed Study should secure FDS authorization (instructions available outside CIU SSM Dean's Office). A student should discuss the proposed study first with his or her faculty advisor and then with the supervising instructor. The regular grading system is used for faculty directed studies.

Grading Policies

Grade Reports: Any student who questions a final grade in any subject should contact the instructor immediately. If the grade is to be changed, the instructor will notify the university registrar by means of a change of grade form stating the reason for the change. Grades may not be contested more than three months after the date of issue.

GRADING SCALE

Grade	GPA per sem. hr.	Percentage*
A	4.0	95-100
A-	3.7	92-94
B+	3.3	89-91
B	3.0	86-88
B-	2.7	83-85
C+	2.3	80-82
C	2.0	77-79
C-	1.7	74-76
D+	1.3	71-73
D	1.0	68-70
D-	.7	65-67
F	0	0-64
I	-	-
S/U **	-	-

*May vary with course at the teacher's discretion

Satisfactory (S) and Unsatisfactory (U) grades do not carry quality points and are not computed in the grade point average.

Failed Courses

Students may repeat courses in which they earned a grade of D or F. The grade earned in the repeated course will be factored into the computation of grade point averages, though a record of the previous grade will remain on the student's transcript. The credit hours will be counted only once. If a failed course is repeated in another school and the transfer credit is applied to the student's program, the program requirements may be met, but the grade earned is not factored into the student's GPA.

Incompletes

Under exceptional circumstances, a faculty member may permit additional time for the completion of course requirements beyond the end of the semester. In such cases, a temporary grade of "I" (Incomplete) will be assigned when submitted work is satisfactory but, due to unforeseen circumstances, one or more assignments is outstanding. An "I" will not be given to enable a student to do additional work to raise a deficient grade.

Conditions for removal of the "I," including the time limit for its removal (normally one month after the final exam), will be decided by the faculty member and documented for the dean. All incomplete grades beyond 30 days require the approval of the dean. It is the responsibility of the student receiving an "I" to submit the outstanding assignments and remove the grade at the earliest possible date. In no case will an "I" grade be carried for more than one year from the assignment of the Incomplete. An "I" grade does not carry quality points and is not calculated in the GPA. A student need not be enrolled in order to remove a grade of Incomplete. No student may graduate with an "I" on record.

Graduation

Columbia International University has three graduation dates per year on which diplomas and certificates are issued: one at the end of Summer Studies (in August), one at the end of fall semester (in December), and one at the end of spring semester (in May).

Students planning to receive a degree or certificate at any of these graduations are required to submit to the Registrar's Records Office a completed application for graduation, with evidence of fee payment, by the deadline specified in the CIU academic calendar. If a student fails to complete all requirements by the date set, the degree or certificate will not be issued. A new application to graduate must be filed and another diploma fee must be paid by the deadline for the new term of expected graduation.

Internships

The purpose of the internship program is to provide supervised experience in ministry in line with the student's vocational objectives. Such an experience allows the student to engage in professional activities while receiving feedback and supervision from an experienced mentor. An internship is required in all degree programs.

All internships have as their principal component the practice of ministry. Internships promote personal growth as the intern integrates the academic and the experiential with all that he or she is as an individual. Internships are planned around specific objectives. After an internship assignment has been confirmed, the student designs a list of ministry objectives and personal objectives which he or she hopes to accomplish during the assignment. Supervision of the student before, during, and after the internship is common to all internships. CIU SSM personnel work along with field personnel to assure that the student receives maximum benefit from his or her internship. Another ingredient common to all internships is evaluation from a variety of sources. Three persons are primarily engaged in the evaluation process: the field supervisor, the faculty supervisor, and the student himself or herself.

A variety of options for the time framework of an internship are available. These are listed and described in the Course Descriptions section under "Internship."

Plagiarism

CIU expects students to be honorable in all their academic work. Students are to do and to be responsible for their own work. Dishonesty in assignments, examinations, written papers, or other academic work is contrary to scriptural principles of Christian living and is an affront to fellow students and the faculty. Plagiarism occurs when a student presents another person's ideas or words as his or her own, or when a student intentionally or unintentionally fails to cite the source of his or her ideas. The following are specific examples of plagiarism:

1. The words, sentences, ideas, conclusions, examples, and/or organization of an assignment are borrowed from a source (e.g., a book, an article, another student's paper, tapes) without acknowledging the source.
2. A student submits work done by another student — in part or in whole — in place of his or her own work.
3. A student submits assignments received from the Internet, from commercial firms, or from any other person or group.
4. A student knowingly aids another student in plagiarizing an assignment as defined above.

Plagiarism will result in academic penalty, and may result in failure in the assignment, failure in the course, and further disciplinary action. When appropriate, the student's personnel dean will be informed. (Adapted with permission from the St. Paul Bible College Handbook and the Student's Guide to Public Communication for the University of South Carolina by William M. Strickland.)

Readmission

If four or more consecutive semesters have elapsed since enrollment, a student must complete the full application procedure. If fewer than four consecutive semesters have elapsed, no application procedure is necessary, but clearance from the CIU SSM Admissions Office is required. Students may contact the Admissions Office for information on gaining clearance. If a student is not enrolled at CIU SSM for two consecutive semesters, degree requirements are based on the catalog in effect at the time of readmission.

Records and Privacy Rights

Records: The registrar maintains a cumulative permanent record for each student on a semester by semester basis, showing courses taken, credits earned, grades received and grade points accumulated. The student has access to an online report on academic work at the end of each semester. In addition, the faculty advisor keeps a current record of progress toward completion of the program.

Student Assessment for Institutional Improvement: In order for CIU SSM to assess and improve its academic programs, periodic measurements of student perceptions and intellectual growth must be obtained. A student may be required to participate in one or more evaluative procedures, including examinations in general academic development and/or the major field of study. Data obtained through evaluative measurements are pooled and used solely to improve the quality of the educational experience of future generations of students.

Student Privacy Rights: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Buckley Amendment with which Columbia International University fully complies), protects the privacy of the educational records, establishes the right of students to inspect these records, and provides guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal hearings. Student records include financial accounts and financial aid records, Field Education assignments and evaluations, grades, veteran affairs, and Student Life Department files. The student has the right to file complaints concerning alleged institutional failure to comply with this Act. Copies of the institutional compliance policy are available in the university Registrar's Office.

CIU designates the following categories of student records as public "Directory Information" and may use its discretion in disclosing the following data:

Name, postal address, e-mail address, telephone number, photographs, dates of attendance, classification, prior institution(s) attended, major fields of study, awards, honors, degree(s) conferred (including dates), past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, and place (not date) of birth.

Forms requesting the withholding of "Directory Information" may be obtained from the university registrar and must be returned prior to the first day of the second full week of classes. A request to withhold any category of information will result in withholding of all "Directory Information." Unless this form is filed, your approval for disclosure of "Directory Information" is assumed.

Registration

Entering students register for courses following notification of acceptance to CIU SSM. Upon acceptance, an online ID and password are mailed to the student's home address. Prior to registering, students receive instructions on the registration process and guidance concerning a course of study from a faculty advisor.

For returning students, registration materials are available online during the posted preregistration period and at the beginning of each term. Preregistration usually begins in the 11th week of the preceding semester. All financial obligations must be met before a student may register.

Transcripts and Diplomas

Graduates are issued a diploma bearing the corporate name, Columbia International University.

Diplomas, certificates, and final transcripts will not be issued if the student has any remaining financial obligations to Columbia International University.

Pre-1994 graduates, upon request, may receive a Columbia International University replacement diploma, dated with the original graduation date and containing a marginal subscript indicating "Replacement Diploma: [date of issue.]" There is a $40 fee for a replacement diploma.

Copies of former student transcripts (except for the first one for which there is no charge) are $5 each unless they are prior to 1961.

Transfer Credit

Course work taken in another school, though not calculated into the GPA, may be credited up to one-half of a degree if not used previously for the award of the same degree or its equivalent. Applicants who have completed work in an institution which is accredited regionally or nationally (CHEA recognized) may receive transfer credit for courses in which they received a grade of "C" (2.0 GPA) or better. Transfer credit may apply to a student's program at CIU SSM in one of the following ways: (a) courses that are parallel to required courses in the CIU SSM curriculum of the student's program may be received as meeting the requirement, and (b) courses that do not parallel any required course may be received as elective credit up to the limit of electives for the particular program in which the student enrolls.

Transferred courses may be applied to the free elective category of a degree only if a comparable course is offered at CIU SSM.

To obtain an estimate of transfer credit, applicants must submit official transcripts for all postsecondary study to the Registrar's Office along with an application for admission and a request for a transcript assessment. In some cases, applicants may be asked to send a catalog or prospectus from colleges or other postsecondary institutions attended. The Registrar's Office will provide an initial assessment of transfer credit, but a final assignment of transfer credit may not be completed until the end of the student's first semester of study at CIU SSM. A copy of the transfer policy is available upon request from the CIU Registrar's Office. Please contact the transcript facilitator in the Registrar's Office for further assistance.

After matriculation, transfer credits may be applied toward a student's curriculum only by approval of the academic advisor.

Withdrawal from Courses

In some cases, it may become necessary or advisable for students to drop a course for which they have registered. Prior to the drop/add deadline, the student should consult with his or her advisor before changing his or her schedule online. After this date, the student must obtain a "Course Withdrawal" form from the Registrar's Office, complete the requested information, and obtain all required signatures before submitting it to the Registration Office for processing. Course withdrawal should be made as early as possible in the semester. Note the tuition refund schedule for students withdrawing from a course (see Detailed Schedule of Expenses). Students withdrawing from a course after the first five weeks of any semester (or after the first day of class in the case of Winter and Summer Studies courses) will receive a "WF" on their transcript for the course, except for a granted medical withdrawal or some other serious circumstance excused by the Seminary dean. Students are responsible for following established withdrawal procedures. Failure to follow withdrawal procedures will result in a grade of "F" for the course.

There are deadlines for adding, dropping, and withdrawing from courses that are set to comply with federal regulations. For detailed information, contact the Registrar's Office, which publishes a schedule of the dates for each term. Under exceptional circumstances a student may submit a written request for an administrative or medical withdrawal beyond the published dates. Information on those policies also is available from the Registrar's Office.

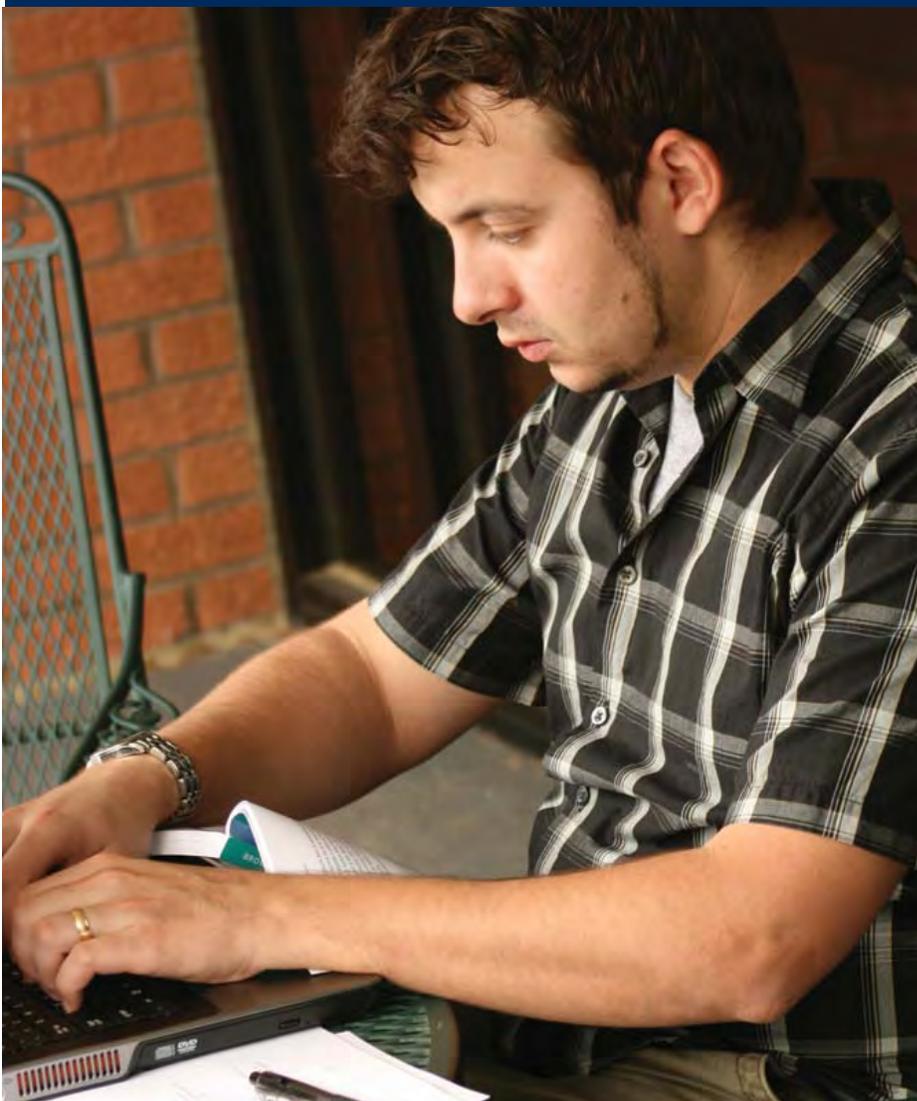

Withdrawal from CIU SSM

In cases where it becomes necessary or advisable for a student to withdraw from school, it is the responsibility of the student to obtain a "School Withdrawal" form from the Registration Office for processing. Failure to attend classes does not constitute withdrawal, and failure to follow withdrawal procedures will result in grades of "F" for all courses. Students withdrawing from school after the first five weeks of any semester (or after the first day of class in the case of Winter or Summer Studies courses) will receive a "WF" for all courses unless the reason for withdrawing is illness or some other serious circumstance excused by the Seminary dean. Note the tuition refund schedule for students withdrawing from school.

Educational Opportunities

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Winter and Summer Studies

Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions offers core and elective courses every year in intensive one- and two-week formats during January (Winter Studies) and one-, two-, and three-week formats from May to August (Summer Studies). The abbreviated format of these sessions provides unique opportunities for students to accelerate degree completion and for those involved in ministry, missions, and other vocations to fit continuing education into their schedules.

Through these modular course offerings, CIU SSM is able to bring outstanding leaders in various fields to the campus. In the more intimate atmosphere of smaller classes, learning takes place in a relationship close enough to get to know and be influenced by world-class specialists.

Students should be aware that a modular course, at the instructor's discretion, may include pre-attendance and/or post-participation reading, reflection, research, and evaluation. Two-week courses typically include post-participation assignments; one-week courses typically include both pre-attendance and post-participation assignments. For dates of the next Winter and Summer Studies terms, see the online academic calendar.

Advancement In Ministry

The Advancement In Ministry (AIM) track is designed to enable students to pursue a seminary education while remaining in their current ministry or occupation. The curricular requirements for each of the degrees offered via AIM are those set out elsewhere in this catalog; it is the delivery system which differs. AIM students travel to the Columbia campus in January and June to complete the residence requirement for two one-week intensive courses each trip. These intensive courses include pre-campus and post-campus components using a variety of instructional media. Between trips to Columbia, students complete online courses in their work or ministry setting. Throughout the year they engage in ministry skills development projects and spiritual formation activities in the context of their home churches.

The schedule set out in "A Typical Year in the AIM Track" (bottom left of this page) is designed to optimize the academic year. Completing four intensive and two online courses each year makes it possible for a student to complete a Biblical Ministry Certificate in 20 months, a Master of Arts in 40 months, or a Master of Divinity in 60 months. In consultation with an academic advisor, however, the student has the freedom to tailor a program of study to meet the circumstances of his/her family, work, and ministry situation as long as the curricular and residence requirement for the degree are met.

Additional details on the AIM track, minimum computer hardware and software requirements, and answers to frequently asked questions may be viewed at www.ciu.edu/aim.

Korntal, Germany, Branch Campus

Columbia International University operates a branch campus in Korntal, Germany, a village with longstanding evangelical and missionary heritage, located just northwest of Stuttgart, the capital of Baden-Württemberg. CIU SSM-Korntal offers German language programs and English language courses which are contextually attuned to the culture and context of German-speaking Europe. The campus is a place of spiritual preparation and missiological study for all who wish to prepare for missionary service, both in Germany and internationally. Students enrolled at CIU SSM-Korntal may earn the Biblical Ministry Certificate or the Master of Arts degree.

CIU SSM-Korntal began as a partnership between CIU and the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Evangelikaler Missionen (AEM). In 1978 AEM launched a program of continuing education for missionaries which matured, in 1985, into the Freie Hochschule für Mission (FHM). Shortly thereafter, a desire to offer university credit led to discussions exploring a partnership with CIU. In 1990, a credit-offering program of FHM was recognized as an extension site of CIU, and in 1994, CIU SSM-Korntal was established as a fully accredited branch of Columbia International University. When the Akademie für Weitmission Korntal (AWM) was founded as the successor to FHM in 2000, an integral aspect of AWM was continuation of the partnership agreement with CIU.

Distance Education

The Distance Education Center offers distance learning courses in a variety of delivery formats. Distance learning allows students to begin their seminary education without relocating, to accelerate resident study by taking courses during time away from campus for work or other reasons, and to continue study after graduation. Information on all distance learning courses is available at www.ciu.edu/distance. Up to one-half of a Master of Arts and up to two-thirds of a Master of Divinity may be earned through distance learning.

Independent Courses

Independent courses provide the flexibility to study over a four-to nine-month span. Students can download the course syllabus, order materials from CIU's online bookstore, and begin working on an independent course up to five months before the course officially begins. Independent courses have fixed end dates which correspond to the end of the Fall, Spring and Summer semesters. Once the student has registered for the course, he or she has access to the CIU library for research and study and can begin submitting assignments by mail or e-mail. CIU SSM professors and faculty assistants provide prompt feedback and encouragement throughout the duration of the independent course. Internet enhanced course components provide the interactive experience of an online community. Students can earn a Biblical Ministry Certificate entirely through this convenient delivery system. Independent courses are well suited for individuals who cannot take a break from life and ministry and need maximum flexibility in scheduling.

Complete information on independent and online courses can be found on the Distance Education and Media Development website: www.ciu.edu/seminary/distance.

Online Courses

Online courses combine the best of independent learning with significant online assignments and interactive discussions. Completed in student cohort groups, online courses are offered only in the Fall and Spring of each year. They generally are 13 to 16 weeks in length, with assignments due every one to three weeks. To take an online course, students must have a computer with Internet access.

Extension Sites

The CIU Seminary & School of Missions offers seminary courses at a site in Pawleys Island, S.C. Courses are sequenced to provide up to half of the Master of Arts degree on site, but courses also may be applied to other degrees at CIU SSM. Half of the M.A. must be completed through residency at the Columbia main campus or the Korntal branch campus. Students may satisfy residency requirements through semesteral, two-week modular, or one-week intensive courses. Courses offered at extension sites also may be incorporated into the non-resident requirements of the Advancement in Ministry (AIM) track.

Pawleys Island: Courses in Pawleys Island focus on leadership training and church planting from an Anglican perspective, but enrollment is open to anyone meeting the CIU SSM admissions requirements. Classes are offered in conjunction with the Institute of Christian Leadership at All Saints Church and the Anglican Mission in America. Classes meet at All Saints Church (Kings River Road, Pawleys Island, S.C.). For additional information, call (843) 235-3517.

Other Educational Programs at CIU

Undergraduate School

CIU's Undergraduate School offers collegiate programs leading to a one-year Bible certificate, two-year Associate of Arts degree, and four-year bachelor's degrees. All bachelor's degree programs feature a Bible major with a professional major and/or minor. (Programs include: Bible teaching, biblical languages, communications, early childhood education, elementary education, family and church education, general studies, humanities, intercultural studies, music, pastoral ministries, psychology, teaching English as a foreign language and youth ministry. The elementary education major leads to state certification.)

The Undergraduate School is large enough to offer a complete range of academic studies and extracurricular activities, yet small enough for a family atmosphere. Thirty percent of the students are married. An exceptional faculty ministers to motivated students in an atmosphere of discipline, dedication and joy.

Graduate School

CIU's Graduate School prepares students for professional positions in Christian para-church and bi-vocational ministries with master's degrees in education (including Bible teaching), clinical counseling, and teaching English as a foreign language (TEFL). The Doctor of Education degree is also offered.

These programs bring together experienced faculty, current professionals, and students from around the world for classes that integrate professional practice into biblical vision and understanding with opportunities to address individual professional needs through collegial interaction, faculty mentoring, and independent study.

The Graduate School offers three master's degrees for those interested in working in Christian schools, missionary schools, international schools overseas, and public schools in the United States. The M.A.T. (Master of Arts in Teaching) prepares students with no prior training in teacher education for teaching responsibilities. Certification areas currently available are Early Childhood Education and Elementary Education. The Master of Education (M.Ed.) degree provides continuing education for school administrations and current teachers. Tracks are available in Educational Administration and Curriculum and Instruction. The Master of Arts in Bible Teaching (M.A.B.T.) is also available.

The Master of Arts in Counseling (M.A.CNS) program is designed to produce well-qualified mental health counselors who integrate counseling research and skills with an understanding of biblical and theological truth in corporate and private, Christian and secular settings. Throughout the program, students build and strengthen a strong biblical and theological base, focusing on biblical studies, missions, evangelism, and discipleship. Into this biblical framework, students integrate their psychological studies, including personality development, pathology, diagnosis, as well as individual, marital, family, group and institutional treatment. Practicum and internship experiences allow students to implement and sharpen the skills they are learning.

The purpose of the Master of Arts in Teaching English as a Foreign Language and Intercultural Studies (M.A.TEFL/ICS) is to prepare professional teachers of English as a foreign language with the knowledge and skills needed to teach in an effective, culturally sensitive way and to prepare graduates to take up leadership roles in the field of teaching English as a foreign language. The program specifically prepares graduates for teaching English in non-English speaking cultures. The program is designed for students with an undergraduate major in Bible (either from a Bible college or a Christian liberal arts college). Interested students without this biblical foundation can fulfill this requirement through the CIU SSM Biblical Ministry Certificate program. For international students whose first language is not English, a score of 600 or above on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and passing an oral interview are required before being admitted into the TEFL/ICS degree.

The Graduate School offers a Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) in Educational Leadership which focuses on enriching the ministry capabilities of Christian school and Christian college leaders. Courses are taught in modular and distance formats which permit students to retain their positions while coming to campus three weeks each year.

Career changers, recent graduates, and experienced educators, will find the CIU Graduate School experience provides renewed vision, spiritual growth, and opportunity for professional advancement. For more information, contact the Graduate School Admissions Office at 1 (800) 777-2227; or visit our website at www.ciu.edu/graduate.

Ben Lippen School

Ben Lippen, a Scottish phrase meaning “mountain of trust,” is an evangelical Christian school for grades kindergarten through 12, founded in 1940 by Robert C. McQuilkin, first president of Columbia International University. Ben Lippen School continues to strive toward Dr. McQuilkin’s goal of teaching young people that there is “life in abundance” (John 10:10) for those who follow Jesus Christ as Lord. The school is college preparatory, coeducational, and receives both resident and day students.

The Ben Lippen School family consists of students from a wide range of cultures and backgrounds. As many as 30 foreign countries and 25 states have been represented in a single year. Some students come from homes of missionaries, pastors, and other full-time Christian workers. Others come from families representing all areas of professional and educational careers. This “melting pot” of young men and women offers an educational experience in itself.

The proximity of Ben Lippen School to Columbia International University provides an opportunity for convenient Christian schooling for children of CIU students.

Cooperative Educational Programs

Carolina Theological Consortium

In order to advance the cause of Christ through graduate level theological education in North and South Carolina and to affirm a spirit of collegiality, CIU SSM is a full member of the Carolina Theological Consortium. Other members of the consortium are Erskine Theological Seminary, Due West, SC, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary—Charlotte, Charlotte, NC, and Reformed Theological Seminary—Charlotte, Charlotte, NC. Students in good standing in each of the member schools may cross-enroll in master’s or doctoral degree courses offered by any of the schools and may borrow library materials from any of the schools. Admission of students who wish to cross-enroll is on a space available basis.

Institute of Strategic Languages & Cultures

The Institute of Strategic Languages & Cultures (ISLC), as part of a continuing partnership with CIU, offers courses in Russian at basic, intermediate, and advanced levels of instruction for students preparing for ministry in Russian speaking countries. Students may enroll in individual courses covering conversational development, grammar, Russian Bible and apologetics, and topical conversation, or may study full time (a five-hour-per-day curriculum). This program affords students a close interactive atmosphere with qualified instructors who provide an encouraging communicative environment for optimum language acquisition. Two Russian civilization courses covering Russian history and culture are also available at the undergraduate level.

Institute of Theological Seminars

The Institute of Theological Seminars (ITS), a joint ministry of Great Commission Center International (GCCl) and Christian Renewal Ministries (CRM), is dedicated to providing graduate theological training for Chinese Christian professionals. Through a formal articulation agreement, CIU SSM permits students who have completed studies at the Institute of Theological Seminars to become transfer students with advanced status in the certificate and degree programs of CIU SSM. Students transferring from ITS must have completed a bachelor's degree from a recognized college or university at the time they pursue course work at ITS.

Zwemer Center for Muslim Studies

The Zwemer Institute was established in 1979 to offer in-depth courses in Islam, produce papers, foster dialogue, and facilitate research on pertinent topics. In 2003, the Zwemer Institute moved to the campus of CIU SSM to become the Zwemer Center for Muslims Studies. Every year the Zwemer Center offers graduate-level courses on the Columbia campus. Most courses are in one-week intensive format offered in January and July; some are available through distance education year-round; and a few are offered on-campus during the regular semesters. All intensive courses may be taken as a non-credit seminars. The Zwemer Center also offers non-credit seminars at other locations upon request.

Admissions

ADMISSIONS

Race, ethnic origin, nationality, sex or handicap are not factors in our admissions policies.

Qualified applicants for Program 1 who intend to earn a degree are encouraged to declare a degree program when they enroll. It is possible to delay declaration of a degree program, but normally not beyond the beginning of the second semester of the Biblical Ministry Certificate program. A “Degree Change” form (available outside the door of the CIU SSM Dean’s Office — Schuster 140) is needed when declaring or changing programs following initial enrollment.

Who Should Apply?

The Seminary requires applicants to provide evidence of:

1. Conversion and development in Christian character, potential for effectiveness in Christian ministry, submission to the will of God, ability to do serious study, and willingness to accept the administration’s authority and guidelines.
2. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution.
3. Ability to pursue successfully an academic program, normally a 2.5 GPA minimum in undergraduate study. (See “Probationary Acceptance” section below if you do not meet these standards.) A 3.0 GPA in undergraduate study is required to enter the Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling Degree.
4. Effective use of English. When English is not a student’s first language, a satisfactory score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) may be required. (See “International Applicants” section, below.)
5. An appropriate undergraduate background. The best preparation for CIU SSM usually is a well-balanced undergraduate program that includes courses in the humanities and sciences. It is helpful for undergraduate studies to include:

English (grammar and composition): 6 semester hours

Philosophy: 3 semester hours

Social Sciences (especially psychology or sociology): 3 semester hours

Natural Sciences: 3 semester hours

History: 6 semester hours

Speech: 3 semester hours

An applicant whose academic background does not include any of these areas may be requested to remove the deficiency as a condition for admission.

In addition to the requirements listed above, Program 2 has other specific entrance requirements that must be met. (See Programs of Study.)

How to Apply:

1. Request an application packet from the Director of Admissions at (800) 777-2227 or P.O. Box 3122, Columbia, S.C. 29203, or from our website at www.ciu.edu/seminary. The Admissions Office can assist you whether you intend to study full time or part time, on or off campus, including non-degree and special student status.
2. Submit:
 - An application and the $45 application fee (non-refundable). If applying online, the application fee is $35. If applying for the D.Min. degree, the application fee is $50.
 - Official transcripts from each post secondary institution you have attended.
 - References from your pastor and two other persons on forms provided. Note that your references should mail the forms directly to the Director of Admissions.
 - Instructions on other required items are provided in the application packet.
3. Within 21 days from receipt of letter of acceptance, confirm your intention to enroll by sending a $300 enrollment deposit and, if living on campus, a $100 security deposit. The enrollment deposit is waived for the spouse of a currently enrolled, full-time CIU SSM student.
4. A medical form will be sent from the Health Services Office after acceptance. Please note: The completed form, including immunization verification and insurance information, must be received by health services before you may register for classes.

Information to Assist You:

International Applicants

Applicants whose first language is not English are required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examination. A score of 550 on a paper-based examination or 213 on the computer-based examination is required for admission to CIU SSM. If the applicant completes the exam through iBT, the required score is 79-80. International students transferring to CIU SSM from another graduate school also must meet this requirement. The TOEFL Exam is available through American consular offices.

With official transcripts (or certified true copies) of all academic work beyond the secondary school level, international applicants should submit a syllabus, course sheet, university catalog, or a statement by the applicant describing the content of each subject covered in each examination taken. Please provide a certified translation into English with any records not in English.

The TOEFL is not required of students taking all their work at the CIU SSM Branch Campus in Korntal, Germany.

Acceptance for study does not imply the availability of scholarship or other financial assistance.

CIU Undergraduate School Applicants

If more than one year has elapsed between graduation from Columbia International University's Undergraduate School and anticipated enrollment in CIU SSM, a full application must be completed and references submitted. If less than a year has elapsed, an abbreviated application is available. Instructions are available from the CIU SSM Admissions Office.

Non-Degree Students

Although students normally are accepted to complete requirements for the certificate or a degree, students not applying for a degree also may be accepted on a conditional basis.

Non-degree applicants must hold a baccalaureate degree and be committed to lifestyle standards consistent with the ethos of Columbia International University. Information on eligibility, limitations, and application procedures is available in the CIU SSM Admissions Office.

Divorced Persons

Certain limitations and conditions may apply in the admission of persons who have been divorced. If you are divorced, please advise the CIU SSM Admissions Office.

Veterans

CIU SSM is approved by the State Approval Agency, South Carolina Department of Education, state of South Carolina, for training persons eligible for benefits under Veterans Affairs programs. The VA certifying counselor serves as veterans' advisor.

Provisional Acceptance

When mitigating circumstances warrant, qualified applicants who have not completed an accredited baccalaureate degree may be accepted provisionally into designated Ministry Leadership degree programs. The CIU SSM Admissions Office can provide further information.

Probationary Acceptance

A limited number of applicants may be accepted on a probationary basis if they have an accredited baccalaureate degree but do not meet other academic requirements (2.0 to 2.5 GPA).

Applicants with less than a 2.5 GPA at the baccalaureate level may, at the discretion of the Admissions office, be placed on academic probation. After nine semester hours of study, the student's work is evaluated to determine whether probationary status should be removed, an alternate program recommended, or enrollment terminated.

Ethical and Doctrinal Criteria

Columbia International University reserves the right to deny or revoke the admission of any candidate whose behavior or lifestyle is inconsistent with biblical principles or with the ministry standards of the CIU community. An applicant will not be admitted who denies any teaching expressed in the Doctrinal Statement, section 1-7. For graduation, affirmation of the Doctrinal Statement is required, except for agreement with the pre-millennial position in section 8.

Instances of Fraud

Anyone found to have been admitted to CIU SSM on the basis of false information will be immediately dismissed and will forfeit all financial payments made and academic credits accumulated during all periods of enrollment following that admission.

Financial Information

EXPLANATION OF EXPENSES

A listing of current fees is available on request from the CIU SSM Admissions Office and online at www.ciu.edu/seminary/admissions. While the following list of fees and expenses is representative of the costs students may incur, tuition, fees, and expenses are adjusted from time to time and the university may impose new fees without prior notice.

Advanced Standing Proficiency Examination Fee: This fee applies to any student request for a proficiency examination toward Advanced Standing with credit for degree programs. The fee is non-refundable.

Application Fee: The application of each entering student must be accompanied by a non-refundable payment.

Audit Fee: An audit fee is charged for all audited classes.

Enrollment Deposit: Each new applicant and those re-enrolling must make an enrollment deposit within 21 days following acceptance. When husband and wife apply at the same time and are accepted to enter CIU SSM at the same time, the husband pays the enrollment deposit but the wife's enrollment deposit is waived. This deposit is considered an advance payment and is credited to the student's account. Students who decide not to enroll should notify CIU SSM immediately because the amount of refund, if any, depends upon the date notification is received. If circumstances arise that force an entering student to delay arrival, he or she must advise the Admissions Office prior to the first day of orientation or forfeit the deposit. (See Refunds.)

Health Insurance: Students not covered by a medical-hospital insurance plan must subscribe to the plan offered by CIU SSM. A premium for each semester is billed at the time of registration.

Room Advance: A room advance deposit is required of all students living in campus residences. For entering students this fee is to be paid at the same time the enrollment deposit is paid, within 21 days following the acceptance. The room advance is held to reserve the student's dormitory space as long as the student continues living in the dormitory and is refunded upon the student's departure from the dormitory. (See Refunds.)

Room and Board: The room and board fee should be paid in full at the beginning of each term. Any student living on campus is to participate in one of the meal plans offered. (Exceptions are given only on request of a physician.) The 21 meal plan includes all meals Monday through Sunday. The 14 meal and 10 meal plans include any 14 or 10 meals of the student's choice during the one week period from Monday breakfast through Sunday dinner.

Student Activity Fee: The Student Activity Fee is charged each fall and spring semester to students registered for six or more semester hours. It provides funds needed for the Graduate Life Council, the Dormitory Councils, Student Missions Connection and other student organizations. The cost of the Finial (the CIU yearbook) is included in the fall semester Student Activity Fee. Students who register for fewer than six semester hours during fall semester but who register for six or more hours during spring semester, are charged the fall Student Activity Fee rate for spring semester.

Transcripts: A charge is made for each transcript.

Tuition: Tuition and fees cover approximately two-thirds of the cost to operate CIU SSM, including the costs of instruction, use of the G. Allen Fleece Library, the Student Computing Center, and facilities provided for students not included in the cost of room and board.

Yearbook Fee: Students not charged a Student Activity Fee may purchase a copy of the Finial by paying the yearbook fee.

Payment Policies

Upon registration, students become financially responsible for their charges for the entire semester. Withdrawal does not relieve a student of this obligation. A diploma or transcript of academic record will not be issued to a student who is financially obligated to the CIU SSM.

Payments to CIU may be made in cash, by check, or by personal credit card. The College Card, a credit card for school-related expenses, is obtainable through Columbia International University.

Any approved but uncredited financial aid scholarships or grants may be taken into account in calculating the payment amount, provided relevant information is clearly provided to the CIU Accounting Office at the time of payment.

Payments for intensive and modular winter and summer courses must be made at registration or prior to the close of registration for the course period.

There are two plans for financial payments to the university for fall and spring semesters:

1. The Semester Plan requires payment of the entire balance due for the semester upon receipt of the fee statement or no later than the last day of registration. Payments may be made in cash, by check, or charged to a personal credit card.
2. The Monthly Payment Plan offers a more regular payment schedule to students. The plan calls for 10 monthly payments. All accounts must be paid in full to the plan administrator (Academic Management Systems) by May 15; thus a 10-month plan requires enrollment and the first payment by August of the preceding year. The fall payment plan begins in August prior to enrollment. The spring payment plan begins in January prior to enrollment. There is a $50 enrollment fee, but no interest is charged.

Veterans and others training under Chapters 30, 31, 34, and 35 of Title 38, United States Code, must be prepared to pay all fees at the time of registration, including (if an on-campus student) room and board.

A student who has not made or arranged for full payment prior to the last day of registration will be dis-enrolled from all courses.

Refunds

Some fees, including the registration fee, course fees, and student activity fee are non-refundable.

Amount of Refund	For those Entering Fall Semester	For those Entering Spring Semester
Full refund if notification is received before:	May 1	Dec 1
50% refund if notification is received between:	May 1 and July 1	Dec 1 and Jan 1
No refund after:	July 1	Jan 1

Enrollment Deposit: Should an applicant decide not to enter CIU SSM after paying the enrollment deposit, she or he should notify the Seminary immediately.

Room Advance: Should an applicant decide not to enter after paying the room advance, she or he should notify CIU SSM immediately. A student deciding not to continue at the Seminary or not to remain on campus must notify the appropriate Student Life dean of her or his intent to leave. For both students and applicants, refund of the room advance will be in keeping with the refund schedule, above.

Postponement of Enrollment: If an accepted applicant chooses to postpone enrollment after paying the enrollment deposit and room advance, these payments will be held on deposit until the student enrolls provided notice of postponement is received prior to the original enrollment date. If notice is received subsequent to the original enrollment date, the payments will be forfeited. Students admitted after the deadline for full refund may be refunded the enrollment deposit but the refund schedule will apply to the room advance.

“No-Shows”: An applicant who fails to appear on the first day of the term for which he or she was accepted, with no previously approved arrangement with CIU SSM for late admission, is considered a “no-show” and forfeits refund of all advance payments.

Tuition: All tuition will be refunded to students who withdraw from CIU SSM before classes begin. Students who withdraw from CIU SSM after classes begin or who reduce their course load in such a way as to affect total tuition charges for the semester will receive refunds according to the following schedule:

Through the end of the registration period:	100%
Through the second week of classes:	90%
Through the fourth week of classes:	50%
Through the eighth week of classes:	20%

NO OTHER REFUNDS ARE PROVIDED

Students who withdraw totally or partially receive tuition refunds based on the date of withdrawal. On-campus students who reduce their loads to fewer than nine semester hours may continue to live on campus as space is available. Students receiving financial aid must also check with Student Financial Services concerning refunds.

Room Rent: Room rent is billed for the semester at the time of registration. Since room space once reserved cannot be re-assigned subsequent to registration, room rent does not fall under the schedule for refunds and cannot be refunded.

Board: Board is billed for the semester at the time of registration. If a student withdraws from CIU SSM, a full refund will be given for board beyond the week of withdrawal. Should the student owe CIU SSM any money, the refund will be credited as a payment on his or her account.

Music Lessons: Music lessons are regulated by the policies of other courses, so discontinuation of music lessons must be processed as a dropped course. Music fees cannot be refunded after the close of the registration period.

Veterans: If a veteran studying under Title 38 should withdraw, whether voluntarily or by dismissal, refunds for tuition and other fees (except the registration fee) are made on a strict pro rata basis. The registration fee is not refundable.

Financial Aid: In order to provide CIU scholarships to as many eligible students as possible, all current CIU scholarships are forfeited when a student withdraws before the end of a term.

STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES

When students are unable to fund their education fully from personal resources, it is CIU's policy to attempt to assist them in obtaining additional financing from federal, state, institutional, and private foundation resources to the extent possible. Students who wish to be considered for aid from these sources must meet general eligibility requirements as well as fund-specific criteria. Eligibility requirements and instructions for applying are outlined below. International students are not eligible for federal aid but may qualify for institutional aid.

Federal Financial Aid

The federal government administers aid programs with the purpose of assisting students whose personal resources are not sufficient to pay for college. This assistance may come in the form of loans, grants, or federal work-study. The primary document used to apply for federal aid is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This document is available online at: www.fafsa.ed.gov. CIU's FAFSA school code is 003429.

To be considered for federal financial aid a student must meet the following general eligibility requirements:

- Submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Be enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a regular, degree-seeking program of study (or other eligible program as defined by the federal government)
- Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen (as defined by the federal government)
- Male applicants must be registered with the Selective Service (if required)
- Must not be in default on a federal student loan or owe money back on a federal student grant program
- Be making satisfactory academic progress toward a degree
- Be enrolled on at least a half-time basis, which is defined as 4.5 credit hours.

Other requirements may apply. Once you submit your FAFSA, the Office of Student Financial Services will contact you to discuss the completion of your application file. You must respond immediately to any request for additional information or documentation. Failure to do so could cause you to forfeit awards.

Types of Federal Aid

Graduate and Seminary students are eligible for two types of federal aid: the Federal Stafford Loan and the Federal Work-Study program. Current information on both types of aid is available at <http://www.ciu.edu/financialaid/>, or directly from the Office of Student Financial Services.

Federal Work-Study (FWS)

This program is designed to subsidize on and off-campus job opportunities for needy students (as determined by the FAFSA). A student may seek employment after arriving on campus by contacting the Office of Career Planning and Placement. All jobs pay at least minimum wage. Even if a student does not meet the need requirements (as determined by the FAFSA) for participation in the FWS program, students may still apply for jobs on campus through regular student employment.

Federal Stafford Loans (FSL)

The Federal Stafford Loan is a long-term educational loan with a 6.8% fixed interest rate. The student borrows from the lending institution of his or her choice. Students who demonstrate financial need according to the FAFSA may be eligible for the Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan. If you receive this type of loan, the U.S. Department of Education will pay the interest as long as you remain enrolled at least half time. The U.S. Department of Education will continue to pay the interest for six months after you leave school (by graduating or withdrawing) and during any deferment period. Students who do not demonstrate financial need according to the FAFSA may be eligible for the Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan. The U.S. Department of Education does not pay interest on this type of loan. The borrower can either pay the interest or allow the interest to be capitalized (added to the principal). With the unsubsidized loan, the interest is the borrower's responsibility from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full. For graduate and seminary students the annual subsidized limit is $8,500 and the overall annual limit is $20,500.

How to Apply for Federal Aid

U.S. citizens and eligible non-citizens must submit the FAFSA (usually by January 31). The FAFSA and the CIU Scholarship Application become available online on January 2. Late applications will be accepted, but funds are awarded on a first come, first served basis. These applications are available online at <http://www.ciu.edu/financialaid/process/>.

Summer Students

Although CIU does not offer regular scholarships during summer terms, students can be considered for Federal Loans.

International Students

International students do not complete the FAFSA. International students should complete the CIU International Student Scholarship Application (ISSA). It is available online at <http://financialaid.ciu.edu/NetPartnerStudent/Logon.aspx?ReturnUrl=%2fNetPartnerStudent%2fPgHome.aspx>

International students seeking financial aid should be aware that they are required by the U.S. Federal government to demonstrate they have the funds necessary to attend the university, prior to arriving in the United States. The U.S. Government has determined that, barring unforeseen circumstances, adequate funding should be available from the same or equally dependable sources for subsequent years of study. (U.S. Federal code 22 CFR 41.61 (b)(ii).) Highest consideration in awarding CIU financial aid to international students will be given to those students who meet the following criteria:

- Are pursuing their first CIU post-graduate degree (MA or higher);
- Have a proven record of ministry effectiveness, especially in leadership positions;
- Explicitly affirm his/her intention to return home to engage in a specific ministry role for which “Western” theological education is a strategic advantage;
- Receive endorsement and financial backing from his/her native church and/or coordinating mission agency;
- Have strong references from CIU alumni, particularly those with which they minister
- Demonstrate mission quality to the institution
- Demonstrate strong Christian character and spiritual maturity

Institutional Financial Aid

Columbia International University has numerous scholarship and grant opportunities available to qualified students. U.S. citizens and eligible non-citizens must submit both the FAFSA and the CIU Scholarship Application. International students must submit the International Student Scholarship Application form. These forms must be submitted each school year for the student to be considered for CIU grants and scholarships for the next school year.

Students must be enrolled for at least nine hours to be eligible for CIU Scholarships and Endowment Grant/Scholarships. Moreover, students need to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress and display excellent Christian character. These grants and scholarships are only awarded during the fall and spring semesters. CIU scholarships are made to entering and continuing CIU students. Award amounts are approximately $1,000 per semester. Approximately 40 Endowment Grants/Scholarships have been established by individuals, families, and institutions that are deeply committed to God's work around the world and to the role that CIU plays in training laborers for that work.

How to Apply for Institutional Aid

U.S. citizens and eligible non-citizens must submit the FAFSA and the CIU Scholarship Application (priority deadline: January 31). These applications are available online at <http://www.ciu.edu/financialaid/process/>. The submission of these two application forms by the deadline will ensure the student full consideration for all of the federal and state aid, and most of the institutional aid, that CIU awards. If any aid program requires a separate application, a link to the required application will be provided on our website: <http://www.ciu.edu/financialaid/ciuaid>.

Institutional Scholarships — Funding Requirements

Specific conditions and qualifications may be required for individual scholarships and are noted accordingly. In addition to meeting the previously stated general requirements, all applicants must also meet the following program requirements:

- Be enrolled at least 9 hours during each semester (including extension and distance education classes)
- Be willing to provide an appropriate “thank you” letter to scholarship donors
- Maintain a 2.0 grade point average
- Not be in default on a federal student loan or owe money back to a federal grant program
- Display excellent Christian character

CIU is able to award institutional financial aid based on available funding and awards aid on a first-come, first-served basis. All scholarships are subject to revision.

CIU Grants and Scholarships

Through the generosity of many friends and alumni, CIU is able to make available grants and scholarships. It is best to understand that a grant is an entitlement that a student receives because of some accomplishment. Scholarships are awarded based on a student meeting the criteria or based on the scholarship simply being awarded. Students are eligible for any grant for which they are qualified, but may receive only one scholarship. The Office of Student Financial Services works with the student to determine the best overall financial package for the student. For more detailed information, please refer to the financial aid page on the CIU website: <http://www.ciu.edu/financialaid/>

Spouse Tuition Benefits

CIU is committed to the principle that training both the wife and husband makes a stronger family and ministry team. CIU has created two procedures to commit to that principle: the Guest Pass and the Partners in Ministry Scholarship.

The Guest Pass

The Guest Pass permits the spouse of a provisional or fully admitted CIU student to attend courses at no charge on space-available basis with the permission of the professor. The spouse must be in the same course as his or her partner. Guests do not take exams or participate in course assignments; participation in classroom discussion is at the discretion of the professor. Course syllabi and other materials are not normally available. A Guest Pass must be obtained from the Registrar's Office.

The Partners in Ministry Scholarship

This scholarship is available to the enrolled spouse of a full-time, degree-seeking student in either the undergraduate, graduate school, or seminary. Award amounts vary based on available funding. Contact Student Services Office for details.

Private Foundations

Literally thousands of scholarships are offered each year through private foundations and civic organizations. The best resources available for discovering these opportunities are the public library, the Internet, and college financial aid offices. Students are encouraged to visit <http://www.ciu.edu/financialaid/resources/> for links to scholarship search websites. Through your own diligence in seeking out possibilities, God may choose to provide for you through private foundations and organizations.

Vocational Rehabilitation Benefits

Students who are overcoming physical and/or developmental obstacles may be eligible for Vocational Rehabilitation benefits through their state of residence. Students should contact their local Vocational Rehabilitation agency for more information.

Financial Aid Policy for Satisfactory Academic Progress

In order to remain eligible for federal, state, and institutional financial aid, all students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress in their course of study. Satisfactory Academic Progress includes both qualitative measures (obtaining and maintaining a satisfactory Grade Point Average), and quantitative measures (obtaining a minimum number of credits toward a degree within specified time limits). The requirements are as follows:

Qualitative Measures

Students enrolled in CIU SSM degrees must maintain a cumulative GPS equal to the cumulative GPA required for graduation from that degree program. CIU SSM programs have a 2.3 minimum GPA requirements for graduation. Students falling below the minimum GPA for one semester are automatically placed on Financial Aid probation. Students falling below the minimum GPA for two consecutive semesters will be considered ineligible for additional financial aid until reinstated.

Quantitative Measures

Credit hours are evaluated on the basis of the student's enrollment. Enrollment is defined and Satisfactory Academic Progress target levels are established as of the last day to register for courses. Satisfactory Academic Progress is evaluated at the end of spring semester. The determinations of satisfactory or unsatisfactory status applies to the next academic year. At the end of the spring semester, graduate and seminary students are considered eligible under this measure if they earned no fewer than 12 semester hours of graduate credit per academic year, regardless of hours attempted. Remedial course work will be considered as part of the student's degree program, but course incompletes, withdrawals, or repetitions may not be used as credit toward obtaining satisfactory academic progress for the purposes of financial aid if these hours are considered attempted yet not earned. Summer course enrollment is not used to determine a student's total semester hours of enrollment; however, semester hours earned during summer sessions are assessed regarding the student meeting the minimum earned hours requirements. (Therefore, a student who is not meeting the minimum earned hours requirement may restore his or her record to compliance with this standard through summer enrollment.) Notifications of Financial Aid ineligibility to current students applying for financial aid will be mailed during the summer.

Appeals

A student who has been determined to be ineligible for financial aid due to a lack of compliance with the satisfactory academic progress standards can only have his or her eligibility restored if one of the following conditions has been met:

1. A sufficient number of credit hours have been earned
2. The student's GPA has been raised to the required level
3. It is established through the financial aid satisfactory progress appeal process that the student encountered some type of extenuating circumstances that hindered academic performance during the semester in question (i.e., prolonged hospitalization, death in the immediate family, etc.). If a student who has been deemed ineligible for financial aid successfully changes his or her Satisfactory Academic Progress standing, it is the student's responsibility to notify the Office of Student Financial Services in writing of this change.

Students wishing to appeal must submit a letter to the OSFS stating their reasons for failing to meet Satisfactory Academic Progress and whether or not they have solved their difficulties. This letter must be submitted no later than two weeks from the date of notification of unsatisfactory progress from the OSFS.

Note to CIU Scholarship/Endowment Applicants

In order to make CIU scholarships and endowments available to as many eligible students as possible, all CIU scholarships and endowments are entirely forfeited when a recipient withdraws from CIU before the end of a term or drops below nine hours of enrollment. In such an event, CIU scholarship and endowment recipients are responsible for complete repayment of funds.

Procedures

The Financial Aid Office will run a Satisfactory Academic Progress report in June. Notifying students of their unsatisfactory progress early in the summer may permit some students to make up for courses during the summer. A probationary report will be run in January so that the Financial Aid Office can send letters to students warning them of potential unsatisfactory academic progress.

Financial Aid Refund Policy

If a graduate or seminary student who is receiving financial aid withdraws from school, either partially or completely, during the course of an enrollment period (semester or short term), policies have been established in accordance with federal regulations to ensure a fair and equitable refund of tuition. Refund policies are subject to federal regulations and may change during the course of a school year. Contact the Office of Student Financial Services for a complete copy of the current refund policy. Note to CIU Scholarship/Endowment Applicants: In order to make CIU scholarships and endowments available to as many eligible students as possible, all CIU scholarships and endowments are entirely forfeited when a recipient withdraws from CIU before the end of a term or drops below nine hours of enrollment. In such an event, CIU scholarship and endowment recipients are responsible for complete repayment of funds.

Student Rights Statement

Students attending schools that participate in federal student aid programs (Title IV programs) have the right to notify the State Postsecondary Review Entity (SPRE) of complaints related to the institution's management of the Title IV programs, or regarding misleading or inappropriate advertising and promotion of the institution's educational programs, or other complaints about the institution. Students must first complete the institution's internal grievance process. The SPRE may be contacted by telephone at (803) 737-2264, or by mail at the following address: The S.C. SPRE Complaint System, 1333 Main Street, Suite 200, Columbia, SC 29201.

Student Life

STUDENT LIFE

Our primary goal for all members of Columbia International University Seminary & School of Missions community is to know God in an intimate way and to grow in that relationship, by the power of the Holy Spirit, becoming more like Jesus Christ.

We believe the Bible is authoritative over our teaching and life. Thus the lifestyle we promote is grounded in the Bible. A rationale for our lifestyle standards is contained in regularly updated handbooks for students, staff and faculty.

Growth in Community:

Although the Bible commands the individual believer to “put off the old life” and to “put on Christ,” spiritual growth takes place best within a community of believers committed to one another in love. Growth is nurtured through instruction, modeling, accountability, encouragement and community standards. The entire CIU SSM experience is intended to achieve the goal expressed in our school motto, “to know Him and to make Him known.” As members of a Christian community, we are responsible to each other and for each other. “Loving one another” is expressed in many ways. We love when we serve each other in humility, gentleness and genuine concern. We love when we lift up those who are burdened, struggling, or fallen. How we fulfill our ministry to one another in love will depend on our personal maturity, spiritual gifts, available resources, and the depth of relationships we establish.

Spiritual growth is fostered through relationships marked by trust and grace. Thus, we need to cultivate Christian friendships in which we are free to disclose with increasing transparency our needs, weaknesses, fears and failures. We also need to accept those responsibilities that come with trust — humility, caring concern, and commitment to our friends’ welfare and growth. This mutuality in ministry is an invaluable stimulus to personal growth. It also is vitally important to effectiveness in ministry.

Personal growth also is nurtured by full participation in the larger Christian community. At CIU SSM, faculty, staff, and students grow by interacting regularly with each other and with supervisors, family, and church friends. In addition to spiritual stimulus in class instruction, CIU SSM promotes spiritual growth and personal development through chapels, prayer days, field education, and informal fellowship on the campus and in our homes.

Community Standards

CIU’s biblical and ministry standards reflect our commitment to live with one another in Christian community as we grow more like Christ. Some of our standards may not apply to Christians in all cultures, but we believe they represent a thoughtful application of Scripture and godly wisdom to our culture, our community setting, and our institutional purpose. All CIU faculty, staff, and students — the entire CIU community — commit to comply with our standards, including any with which they disagree. Following is a general summary of biblical and ministry standards at CIU:

We want students to place high priority on pursuing personal godliness. A significant time of daily fellowship with the Lord in prayer and meditation on the Word is essential for all believers. At least five times a week, students are expected to set aside half an hour or more for a personal time with the Lord.

Daily chapel services and monthly days of prayer provide opportunity for inspiration, fellowship and spiritual growth. Typically, the entire CIU community meets together, although occasionally SSM and Graduate School faculty and students meet separately from those in the Undergraduate School. If a student is enrolled for more than six credit hours, chapel attendance is required.

Students are expected to be members of a local church, either in their home area or in Columbia. Even students who choose to retain membership in a church at home need a church home in the Columbia area. Active participation in the church’s life and ministries, including regular Sunday attendance, should be pursued except when in conflict with a field education assignment.

CIU SSM recognizes Sunday as a special day of rest, worship, and service to the Lord, a day distinct from other days of the week. On the Lord’s Day, members of our community abstain from work (except works of mercy) and from academic study.

Unless engaged or married, students are to refrain from physical, romantic expressions of affection.

The use of alcohol, tobacco, hallucinogenic drugs, and other narcotics is not permitted (except when prescribed by a doctor), nor is any form of gambling.

“ . . . but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him, who is the head, even Christ, from whom the whole body, being fitted and held together by that which every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.” Ephesians 4:15-16

Cinema or theater attendance and television or video viewing must not violate biblical standards of purity and worthiness.

A full explanation of our standards is published in our student handbook. Students receive the student handbook during orientation, but a copy is available earlier upon request.

We encourage students to examine the biblical foundations of our standards and invite them to interact freely with faculty members and Student Life personnel regarding issues of purpose and application. Through instruction, example, reflection, discipline, and interaction, we encourage students to develop a biblical and Christ-pleasing lifestyle of their own. Nevertheless, our lifestyle standards are an important part of learning and growth at CIU SSM; as a community, we embrace them as an expression of our submission to the lordship of Jesus Christ.

Serious violations of our community standards are addressed by the Student Life Department. The offending student will be counseled and may be assigned appropriate discipline. Specific disciplinary measures are described in the student handbook.

Assessment takes into account the nature of the problem, the student's attitude, previous conduct, and length of enrollment at CIU SSM.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

An Outline of Expectations:

Authority of the University

Although CIU exists for students, the Board of Trustees, by charter and by-laws, is responsible for the educational programs and campus life. The president of the university reports to the Board of Trustees and is responsible for the organization and administration of the school.

Scriptural Commands and Clear Teaching

The God revealed in the Bible desires to transform, illumine, and empower both faculty and students. He is the source of all authority and has power to transform His children into the image of Jesus Christ; He is the one who changes our lives in community.

Scripture teaches that certain attributes are available to individuals through the Holy Spirit. These attributes include love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. "Against such things there is no law." (Galatians 5:22-24 NIV). This "fruit of the Spirit" is to be sought, encouraged, and demonstrated in our relationships.

In contrast to encouraging these positive attributes of the heart, Scripture condemns attitudes such as greed, jealousy, pride, lust, and hatred. Although these attitudes are sometimes difficult to discern, they can hinder relationships with God and others and lead to unacceptable behavior. Certain behaviors are expressly prohibited in Scripture and therefore are to be avoided by members of the University community. They include theft, gambling, lying, dishonesty, gossip, slander, backbiting, profanity, vulgarity (including crude language), sexual promiscuity (including adultery, homosexual behavior, premarital sex, and pornography), drunkenness, immodest attire, and occult practice.

Scriptural Principles Contextually Applied at CIU

Within the context of our educational mission and cultural circumstances certain responsibilities represent our attempt to apply clear scriptural principles at CIU.

These responsibilities, include, but are not limited to:

- The responsibility to participate actively in the University's life of prayer and faith:
 - To observe Sunday as a special day of rest, worship, and service to the Lord. This observance includes involvement in a local church and refraining from academic study and work, unless given permission, on Sundays;
 - To have a time of daily communion with the Lord in prayer and meditation on the Word with a focus on personal godliness, spiritual growth, right relationships with others, and God's direction for life;
 - To attend chapel services for worship, inspiration, fellowship, spiritual growth, and the dissemination of community information;
 - To attend Prayer Days each semester for corporate prayer;
- The responsibility to practice complete honesty in connection with course work, interpersonal relationships, and daily activity in every setting;
 - To acknowledge the source of words, sentences, ideas, conclusions, examples, and/or organization of an assignment that are borrowed from a book, an article, another student's paper, tapes, other sources;
 - To use only legally authorized duplication and/or distribution sources for music and movies.
- The responsibility to uphold a level of behavior consistent with the University's model of training for Christian servanthood and leadership:

- To take care of body, mind, and soul through proper nutrition, adequate sleep, regular exercise, and abstention from harmful practices such as the use of tobacco and illegal drugs;
- To maintain biblical principles of truth, honor, and purity with regard to visual and listening choices such as movies, music, Internet, computer games and blogging;
- To limit behaviors that may cause offense or moral failure, such as restricting expressions of physical affection to what is appropriate for the level of commitment of the relationship and refraining from social dancing and drinking of alcoholic beverages.

For further explanation of the implications of these responsibilities, please refer to the Columbia International University Standards and Lifestyle Expectations.

The University and the Law

In keeping with scriptural admonitions to bring ourselves under the authority of government, members of the University community are expected to uphold the laws of the local community, the state of South Carolina, and the nation. Any alleged violations of federal, state, or local laws may be referred to the appropriate law enforcement officials and/or to the appropriate University or judicial body.

University Practices

In addition to subscribing to biblical expectations, members of the University community intentionally commit themselves to following the University's institutional standards of behavior. This commitment reflects the conviction that these standards serve the good of the individual, the community, and the institution.

For further explanation of the implications of these responsibilities, please refer to the Columbia International University Standards and Lifestyle Expectations.

Academic Responsibilities

The faculty has the responsibility to inspire, develop, and equip students for lifelong pursuit of God and servant leadership in His global cause. Students have the responsibility to embrace, inquire, and refine their knowledge, critical thinking processes, skills, and talents for service to God and others. Most importantly, we expect God to participate in the learning process. His role is to transform and illumine the minds of both students and teachers and to empower all for a life of godliness and service.

Academic responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- The responsibility to share with the faculty in the maintenance of the integrity of scholarship, grades, and academic standards.
- The responsibility to learn the content of a course of study according to standards of academic performance established by the University and the faculty member for each course she/he takes.
- The responsibility to promote by words, attitude, and actions a classroom atmosphere that is conducive to the teaching and learning process for all concerned and to respect the standards of conduct established by the University and each faculty member.
- The responsibility for class attendance and to submit all class assignments (e.g. examinations, tests, projects, reports), by scheduled due dates or accept penalties. If any problem arises regarding course work or attendance, the student will be responsible for initiating contact with the instructor.
- The responsibility for meeting degree requirements as provided in the University catalog.
- The responsibility to register, "add," and/or "drop" courses in a timely manner to ensure that others will have an opportunity to take courses. The student is responsible to follow the University guidelines if he/she desires an incomplete or needs to withdraw from the University.
- The responsibility for the financial cost of attending the University.

Basic Rights of Students

Students enrolled at the University enjoy certain rights, including, but not limited to:

Access

- The right to access the programs and services of the University without regard to color, gender, race, disability, or national/ethnic origin.
- The right to receive counsel regarding financial aid sources and implications of student debt repayment prior to incurring financial obligation to the institution.
- The right to withdraw without obligation within a time frame published by the University.

Appeal

- The right to appeal decisions involving judicial or administrative action.

- The right to appeal decisions involving grades.
- The right to seek exceptions to program requirements or academic policies by petition.

Information

- The right to inspect and review educational records except where a student has waived such rights or where access is prohibited by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.
- The right to receive a syllabus for each course which states the goals of the course, the requirements which must be met, the system of grading, and the attendance policy.
- The right to full disclosure of all expenses per semester prior to becoming financially obligated to the institution.
- The right of access to campus crime statistics.
- The right to data on advancement, retention, and graduation ratios.
- The right to own intellectual property created in fulfillment of coursework unless specified otherwise in writing. All revenue generated or compensation awarded through such intellectual property belongs to the owner.

Privacy

- The right to prevent disclosure of directory information or educational records to a third party.
- The right to seek amendment of educational records.

Voice

- The right to be heard with regard to the formulation and improvement of educational programs, policies, and services.
- The right to organize, to assemble, and to express opinions, subject to established procedures.

Judicial

- The right to know, in person when possible, the charges made against him/her in any disciplinary procedure.
- The right to expect that two or more witnesses and/or corroborating evidence support any accusation.
- The right to an appeal process if a student disagrees with disciplinary measures assigned by a representative of the University.

- The right to request that a neutral party be present at appeal meetings as an advocate. This person must be a member of the University's Student Senate and is present only to assist the student in presenting his/her case or testimony, not to serve in a role defending the student's actions.

Complaints

- The right to bring formal complaints against the University and, if not resolved through the normal channels, to register a complaint with the University's accrediting agencies.
- The right to file a formal complaint of discrimination on the basis of disability with the Office of Civil Rights (OCR) in the U.S. Department of Education.
- The right to notify the State Postsecondary Review Entity (SPRE) of complaints related to the University's management of the Title IV programs, or regarding misleading or inappropriate advertising and promotion of the University's educational programs, or other complaints about the institution.

Policies and procedures governing the above responsibilities and rights appear in various University publications. Revisions may be made to such policies and procedures and shall become effective following dissemination or update.

Student Discipline

When Student Life personnel must address matters of student conduct requiring discipline, it is done with redemptive intent. Assessment takes into account the nature of the problem and the student's attitude, previous conduct, and length of enrollment at CIU. Students are offered opportunities to grow through counseling and/or logical or natural consequences. The ultimate goal is restoration of healthy relationships with God, other individuals, and their community. The Student Handbook lists some of these avenues.

Student Complaints & Grievance Policy

CIU provides a process for students to voice complaints and file formal grievances when they are dissatisfied with a university service or policy or an action by a university employee. The process aims to be constructive and positive in resolving differences.

This Student Complaints and Grievance Policy covers academic and non-academic matters except in areas where formal policies and procedures take precedence. (Such formal policies and procedures are listed in the student handbook and academic catalogs.)

General Principles:

- Whenever possible and in a timely fashion, a student should voice a complaint informally with the faculty member, staff member, or other student involved.
- The appropriate division (Higher Education, Ben Lippen School, or Broadcasting) will handle student complaints and grievances as quickly and as fairly as possible.
- Anonymous complaints and grievances will not be addressed formally.
- There will be no adverse effect on or retaliation against either a student who, in good faith voices a compliant/grievance or against any person who, in good faith, provides information regarding a complaint/grievance.
- Written grievances will receive written responses within 30 days and will be kept on file in the appropriate office.

Procedures

- Academic Matters: If a student has a grievance about a course or faculty member it should be addressed in accordance with the grievance policy of his/her school (Undergraduate School, Seminary, or Grad School). This grievance policy is published in the school's academic catalog. If a student has a grievance about an academic policy or its enforcement, this issue should be addressed with the academic dean of the appropriate school.
- Non-academic Matters: If a student has a grievance about a non-academic matter it should be addressed with the dean of Student Life.

Academic Grievance Procedures

If a student has a concern about an academic matter, the following process should be followed:

Step 1:

In keeping with the Matthew 18 principle, the student should discuss the matter with the faculty member involved. Faculty will listen to concerns or questions and, when deemed appropriate, amend decisions.

After this discussion if the student feels that one of the following reasons applies, Step 2 of the appeal process may be taken:

- The decision rendered was not supported by sufficient evidence. (i.e. expectations in the class syllabus)
- The academic consequence is more severe than called for by the situation.
- A stated university policy has been misapplied.

Step 2:

Within three days of receiving an answer from the faculty member, a letter of appeal should be delivered to the student program director.* If the program director* is the faculty member involved, Step 3 should be taken.

The letter of appeal should outline the concern, describe the steps taken and the answer given, and provide an explanation of why one of the above stated reasons can be applied to the situation. The program director* will call a meeting with both the student and the faculty member to discuss the problem and issue a written decision on the appeal. If the student feels that the program director's* decision does not correctly address the reason for the appeal as stated above, then Step 3 should be taken.

Step 3:

Within three days of receiving a written decision from the program director,* the student should deliver a letter of appeal to the academic dean who will direct the appeal to the Academic Grievance Committee. The letter will be given to the committee chair and the matter will be presented to the Academic Grievance Committee for resolution. The committee is comprised of a minimum of three program directors* or their designees.

The student may request to be in attendance for the discussion of the issue to present a verbal statement and to answer questions. In addition, the student may request a neutral observer (only) who is a student at CIU to join them at this meeting. Neither the student nor the observer will be allowed to be present during the decision making process. Following the appeal discussion and decision, the Academic Grievance Committee chairman will provide a written response to the student outlining the decision.

An appeal of the grievance committee decision may be made to the academic dean only if there is evidence that the grievance procedures were not followed, new evidence surfaced, or inappropriate or disproportionate consequences were imposed. This written appeal must be presented to the academic dean within three days of receipt of the written Grievance Committee decision. A decision rendered by the dean shall be considered final.

A student has the right to register a complaint with the university president and/or provost and then, if still deemed necessary, to accrediting agencies (i.e., ABHE, SACS) to whom CIU maintains accountability.

General Grievance Procedures

Step 1:

Following the Matthew 18 principle, if a student has a concern about a non-academic matter (e.g. an issue with the business office, security, food service), the student should discuss the matter with the individual or office involved. If a student believes Step 1 is untenable or inappropriate given the situation, he or she may proceed to Step 2. This grievance procedure should not be followed in the case of a disciplinary appeal. Please refer to the appeal process in the student handbook.

After a discussion with the individual or office involved, if the student feels that one of the following reasons applies, Step 2 of this process may be taken:

- the decision rendered was not supported by sufficient evidence
- the consequence is more severe than called for by the situation
- a stated university policy has been misapplied

Step 2:

Once a student has addressed the individual or office involved, the student may direct a letter of appeal to the next appropriate individual office.

Please see Student Life for the appropriate contact person regarding the appeal

Step 3:

Student grievances or complaints about university procedures may be referred to the Student Senate for its consideration. The Student Senate (comprised of executive officers and presidents/leaders of all student organizations) represents all CIU students and can make recommendation to the CIU office involved. If this response still does not resolve the issue, or if the Student Senate is not the appropriate venue for the grievance, the appeal may continue in the following order:

- Dean of Students, ext. 5234 (Student Center)
- Provost, ext. 5039 (Administration Building)
- President, ext. 5016 (Administration Building)

Step 4:

If deemed necessary, the student can register a complaint to CIU's accrediting agencies.

Student Services

Athletics/Physical Fitness

Since CIU SSM seeks to develop the whole person, physical fitness is important to our overall training program. Students are encouraged to develop healthy habits of sleep, diet and exercise. Facilities, equipment, organized team and individual sports, and fitness and nutritional information are available to assist students in achieving and maintaining a viable fitness program. In addition to the campus gymnasium and fitness facilities, CIU SSM students may obtain memberships in the local YMCA health and fitness center for a minimal fee.

Career Services

The Career Services Office provides a range of services to assist students with their career and employment needs. The office maintains a password-protected job database with current listings for on- and off-campus jobs. There are usually campus jobs available in various departments, some of them require little or no experience, and others need more skill and ability. Part-time and full-time off-campus positions are available in churches, educational institutions, mission agencies, parachurch organizations, and in the marketplace: locally, nationally, and worldwide. Through personalized assistance, students receive guidance in conducting a job search, self-assessment, resume and cover letter writing, and interviewing.

In addition to the services listed above, career counseling and help with the placement process also occur in a variety of settings and activities on campus, particularly through academic advising, program specific courses, field education/internships, and chapels. Representatives and recruiters from Christian organizations such as churches, denominational agencies, mission organizations, and educational institutions are on campus recruiting personnel on a regular basis throughout the school year.

Most CIU students find employment in their chosen field within a year after graduation. Students should maintain close contacts with their denominations and local churches and gain experience that will help them achieve their vocational goals. Students should begin early in their entire academic career to investigate organizations, institutions, and agencies that interest them.

Chaplain Services

CIU SSM offers personal and spiritual counsel and advising to its students. Many students find assistance from faculty and Student Life personnel in the areas of spiritual and ministry standards, interpersonal relationships, premarital and marital concerns, and other non-clinical needs. Referrals to on-campus licensed professionals or therapists in town are available upon request.

Food Services

Food service at CIU is provided through Pioneer College Caterers. Pioneer offers on-campus students a choice of six meal plans each semester. Various plans are available during Summer Studies sessions. Off-campus students and guests may purchase meals during regular academic terms.

Grad Life Council

Each elected member of Grad Life Council bears responsibility for leading in an area of student life and for facilitating communication between students and faculty. Together the Council initiates and coordinates programs and activities designed to maximize the spiritual, social, and physical benefits of CIU SSM life for each student, single or married, on or off campus.

Health Services

An on-campus clinic staffed by a registered nurse and a visiting physician is provided for the health care needs of CIU students. Students are responsible for the cost of medicines, physician's fees, testing procedures, and any hospital charges. All students must carry hospital and medical insurance. A CIU group insurance plan is required of students not covered by another plan.

Housing

Many single men and women live on campus and many find this life with peers from various backgrounds has great potential for personal and interpersonal development. Air-conditioned rooms are furnished with beds, desks, chairs, closets and sinks. Students provide blankets, pillows, linens and curtains. Each on-campus residential facility includes a community kitchen, lounge and laundry room. As indicated in the Admissions section of this catalog, a $75 housing deposit is required to reserve a room on campus.

Off-campus housing includes mobile homes, apartments (including professionally managed complexes, privately managed duplexes, and federally subsidized apartments), and homes. Rental prices are dependent upon size, facilities, and location, typically averaging between $300 and $600 per month. A housing register of available units is maintained online by the Student Life Office.

Some campus housing is provided for married students in the mobile home "CIU Village." In addition to homes owned by students, a number of school-owned homes are rented to students. Applications for residence in the CIU Village, as well as information concerning other area housing, may be obtained from the Student Life Office.

International Students

CIU SSM provides a particularly hospitable environment for its many international students. Several members of the CIU SSM faculty have lived and ministered in Asia, Africa, Latin America, or Europe and converse fluently in languages other than English. The school's emphasis on cross-cultural ministry and biblical studies provides an atmosphere in which international students are encouraged to relate biblical truth to their cultures and in which North American students are encouraged to appreciate other cultures and consider how the Scriptures may be obeyed and communicated cross-culturally. Over 1,000 international students from 91 countries reside in the Columbia area. This large international community and the many churches in the area provide a variety of learning and ministry experiences.

International Student Ministries (ISM) focuses on assisting international students both before their arrival in Columbia and during their time at CIU SSM. The Student Life Office informs, encourages, and assists international students and their families with non-academic concerns. A special international student handbook is published each year to introduce international students to the life of the seminary and its community.

Koinonia Food Co-Op

Student families operate an on-campus food cooperative, providing quality Harvest Hope Food Bank goods and products at no cost and other household items at a reduced cost to off-campus residents, faculty, staff, and alumni. There is a fee to join the co-op.

Opportunities for Student Spouses

Since spouses are partners in ministry, they are encouraged to take advantage of their time at CIU SSM also to be equipped. To enable spouses to enroll in undergraduate or seminary courses, CIU provides a "Spouse Tuition Grant" for those who qualify. (See the Student Financial Services section of this catalog.) Spouses also are encouraged to take advantage of the many social and other activities available on campus, including a "Wives Fellowship" for faculty, staff and student wives.

Orientation

All entering students participate in an Orientation program designed to introduce them to CIU SSM's spiritual, academic, and social life. The program provides an introduction to CIU SSM and CIU life in every dimension. During this program, entering students have an opportunity to develop friendships with other entering students and with returning students who guide them through the transition to CIU life. Orientation features fellowship, fun, spiritual renewal, and family spirit, in addition to academic advising and registration.

All entering students are expected to be present for Orientation activities. An Orientation schedule is mailed prior to the beginning of each term. Students who are unable to attend Orientation must notify the Admissions Office prior to the first day of the program.

Post Office

CIU operates a full-service post office for faculty, staff, and students with regular hours throughout the academic year. Students are assigned a personal post office box for receiving mail. The campus Post Office sells stamps, postcards, and air forms and receives and forwards letters and packages for the U.S. Postal Service. United Parcel Service also is available for deliveries and mailings. The address for on-campus students is: 7435 Monticello Road, Columbia, SC 29203.

Course Descriptions

COURSE TITLES AND DESCRIPTIONS

Courses numbered 5000-5999 are basic courses usually taken in the first year of study.

Courses numbered 6000-7999 are designed for more advanced students. Those numbered 7000-7999 normally are scheduled in the final year of the M.Div. curriculum.

Courses numbered 9000-9999 are designed for doctor of ministry students. Under special circumstances, advanced master's degree students may be admitted by petition if they have at least three years of field ministry experience.

Students desiring a course offered "on request" must submit an academic petition to the seminary dean, signed by a minimum of five students who intend to enroll in the course. This petition must be submitted prior to the regular semester immediately preceding the semester in which the course is desired.

Prerequisites are listed with some course descriptions. Equivalent courses taken in another institution may substitute for the stated prerequisite, provided transcript documentation is on file and the substitution has been approved by the seminary dean.

Courses offered in online or independent format are noted at the end of each course description. Online and independent courses, include recorded lectures, study guides, text books and other materials and may be completed in any location. To enroll in an online or independent course, contact the Distance Education Center.

Course availability is subject to sufficient student enrollment.

► BIBLE

BIB 5112 Genesis to Song of Solomon: God's Plan of Creation and Redemption.....(3)

In this course you will focus on the structure and contexts (historical, political, social, and religious) of each book, major theological passages and issues, and the application of these texts to the life of the New Testament believer. God introduces His purpose for creating the world and redeeming human beings and establishes Israel as the nation through which He would bless all the nations in Jesus Christ. (Also in online and independent formats)

BIB 5113 Prophets: God's Message of Redemption and Judgment.....(3)

In this course you will focus on the structure and contexts (historical, political, social, and religious) of each prophetic book, major theological passages and issues, and the application of these texts to the life of the New Testament believer. The prophets of Israel proclaim God's program for Israel and the nations of the Old Testament period and anticipate the redemptive work of Christ whose predicted life and death would secure salvation for the world. (Also in online and independent formats)

BIB 5132 Gospels: God's Means of Providing Redemption(3)

This course will guide you through a chronological, synthetic study of the four gospel records, emphasizing the time, place, circumstances, and persons involved in the events of Jesus' ministry. The gospel writers narrate the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God's appointed Redeemer of the world, who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament. (Also in independent format)

BIB 5133 Acts to Revelation: God's People Proclaiming Redemption Globally(3)

In this course you will study the introductory background, structure, and content of the New Testament books, Acts to Revelation, understood within their first century life setting. The authors of Acts, the letters, and Revelation not only relate the advance of the early church in proclaiming redemption globally, they provide the contemporary church with normative missionary documents to guide it in fulfilling Christ's commission. (Also in independent format)

BIB 5220 Biblical Geography(3)

In this course you will embark on an in-depth study of the geography of Palestine as the physical backdrop of events from Abraham to Christ. Extensive use of media and maps will seek to draw you into an "eye-witness" experience of the lives of the people of the Bible. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 5410 Hermeneutics: Interpreting and Applying the Bible.....(3)

This course introduces you to the principles and processes of biblical interpretation and application. Emphasis will be placed on both theory and practice. Within the framework of an exegetical method, you will learn to apply basic principles to selected missiological passages from the Old and New Testaments. Special attention will be given to the principles used in correctly interpreting parables, poetry, and prophecy. (Also in online and independent formats)

BIB 5888 Israel Study Tour(3)

You will participate in an intensive study tour of the most important accessible biblical sites in Israel, with emphasis on those located in Judea, Galilee, and Jerusalem. Instruction is provided by a resident CIU SSM faculty member who plans and supervises the tour.

Prerequisite: BIB 5220 or equivalent. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 6010
Acts in Historical, Theological, and Missiological Perspective(3)

A study of Acts examines the birth and growth of the early church. In addition to studying the historical sequence of events, you will consider Luke's theological themes, learn to extrapolate legitimate biblical principles from historical narrative, and apply those principles in the development of contemporary missions strategy. Attention will be given to the use of Acts for teaching and preaching.
Prerequisite: BIB 5410 or equivalent. (Also offered as ICS 6010.)

BIB/ICS 6030
Biblical Theology of Missions(3)

You will engage in a study of God's purpose and activity as it is revealed through Israel's responsibility to the nations in the Old Testament and through the mandates entrusted to the Church in the New Testament. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit. Also in independent format.)

BIB/ICS 6045
Biblical Contextualization(3)

In this course you will study how to understand and apply the Bible faithfully and effectively in a cross-cultural setting. You will look at the Bible's teaching about culture and hermeneutics, especially language, revelation, truth, scriptural authority, application and contextualization. You will assess case studies of contextualization in missions. Your summative exercise will produce a biblically controlled example of contextualization. Prerequisites: BIB 5410 and ICS 5030 or equivalent. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 6320
Old Testament Theology(3)

In this introductory study you will explore the theological thought of the Old Testament. You will examine the major themes which give unity to the writings of the Old Testament. Special attention will be given to God's salvation for Israel and the world as well as to the interpretation of the Old Testament in the New Testament and its application in contemporary culture.

BIB 6330
New Testament Theology(3)

In this introductory study you will explore the theological thought of the New Testament, trace the progression of thought beginning with Jesus, and seek to discover each writer's distinctive contribution to the overall message of the New Testament. Special attention will be given to the gospel of the kingdom as proclaimed and applied by the various biblical authors.

BIB 6410
History of Bible Interpretation(3)

In this course you will examine the history of biblical interpretation from the early Jewish and Rabbinic writers through the Middle Ages and Reformation up to the postmodern writers. You will explore relevant worldview assumptions, the rise of various types of historical and literary criticism, and a defense of both traditional literal hermeneutics and the single-meaning located in the mind of the original author. Prerequisite: BIB 5410 or equivalent. (Offered in alternate years.)

BIB 6421
Old Testament Tools and Techniques(3)

This course will introduce you to special issues in Old Testament interpretation and the use of Hebrew-based tools. You will learn a word study method and the process for approaching the special considerations of the narrative, wisdom and prophetic portions of the Old Testament. Special emphasis is placed on helping you strengthen your skills in interpreting and communicating the message of the Old Testament writings.

Prerequisite: BIB 5410 or equivalent. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 6431
New Testament Tools and Techniques(3)

This course will introduce you to the use of Greek-based tools for the study of the New Testament text. Basic to the course is an understanding of the grammar and syntax of Koine Greek in comparison with that of English. Special emphasis is placed on helping you strengthen your skills in interpreting and communicating the message of the New Testament writings. Prerequisite: BIB 5410 or equivalent. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 6503
Genesis(3)

In this course you will consider the content of Genesis with particular focus on the theology from creation to the Abrahamic Covenant. Attention will be given to the development of major themes throughout Scripture, the hermeneutical difficulties of narrative, and the use of Genesis for teaching and preaching.

BIB 6540
Psalms(3)

The historical context of corporate and individual faith and worship in ancient Israel provides the background to help you understand the message of the Psalms and their relevance for contemporary Christian experience. Attention will be given to different Psalm types, the structure of Hebrew poetry, the universal perspective of the Psalms, and the use of Psalms for teaching and preaching. (Also in independent format)

BIB 6543
Proverbs and Job(3)

A study of the wisdom books of Proverbs and Job seeks to help you set them in their international context and in the context of biblical theology. Attention will be given to the books' teaching on practical living, their dominant theological emphases, their implications for Christian ministry in our times, and the use of Proverbs and Job for teaching and preaching.

BIB 6548
Isaiah(3)

A study of the book of Isaiah will guide you in an examination of its structure, content, and contemporary significance. Attention will be given to the book's theological themes, its emphasis on knowing God and making God known, its use in the New Testament, and the use of Isaiah for teaching and preaching.

BIB 6601
Matthew(3)

In this study of Matthew's portrayal of the life, ministry, and teaching of Jesus you will consider the author's historical, catechetical, apologetic, and missiological purposes. Attention will be given to major theological themes, contemporary application of Jesus' teaching in the five major discourses recorded by Matthew, and the book's use for teaching and preaching.

John(3)

In this study of the fourth gospel you will explore its cultural and theological context. Attention will be given to tracing the movement of the book, exegesis of selected passages, the Upper Room Discourse in chapters 13-17, and the use of John for teaching and preaching.

BIB 6616
Romans(3)

A study of Paul's letter to the Romans will help you understand its message in the light of the original, first century situation. Consideration will be given to the significance of the letter's message for today. Special emphasis is placed on the development of your exegetical skills and on the use of Romans for teaching and preaching.

Prerequisite: BIB 5410 or equivalent.
(Also in independent format)

BIB 6645
Prison Epistles(3)

This course will give you a greater appreciation for Paul's prison epistles by helping you develop an understanding of the historical background of his ministry prior to writing the letters and helping you interpret each letter textually and contextually. Special emphasis will be given to the use of the Prison Epistles for teaching and preaching. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 6659
Hebrews(3)

In this course you will trace the orderly exposition of the epistle to the Hebrews, with particular attention given to the person and work of Christ as high priest, the fulfillment of the Old Testament in the new covenant, and the life of persevering faith of the Christian sojourner. Attention will be given to the use of Hebrews for teaching and preaching. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 6788
The Spirit World in Biblical Perspective(3)

This study introduces you to the biblical teaching on the spirit world. You will focus on what the texts of the Old and New Testaments teach on spiritual warfare, angels, evil spirits, and the power of God. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 6950
Faculty Directed Study in Bible(1-3)

A faculty member will direct your study as you participate in a seminar or pursue research in an area of special interest.

BIB 7041
Preaching Missions from Matthew(3)

This cross-disciplinary course will engage you in a study of Matthew's portrayal of the life, ministry, and teaching of Jesus as well as introducing you to methods to follow when preparing a series of sermons on the first gospel. Attention will be given to such issues as introductory matters, gospel study methods, Jesus' teaching on mission, Matthew's "universal blessing" theme, preaching resources, and preaching approaches. You will prepare a series of messages on the book and will gain experience by preaching in class. (Also offered as HOM 7041.) Prerequisite: HOM 6300 or equivalent. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

BIB 9950
Doctoral Studies in Bible(1-3)

A faculty member will direct your study as you participate in a seminar or pursue research in an area of special interest.

Islam in the 21st Century.....(3)

In this course you will explore the issues behind the anger and agenda of militant Islam. You will examine not only the roots of Islamic fundamentalism and the radicalization of Muslims throughout the world but also liberal and modernist trends. Special attention will be given to the problem of Israel, the reasons Islam is growing so rapidly in the West, and implications for Christian witness.

ICS 6074
Communicating Cross-culturally(3)

You will explore the complex interrelationship between culture and language, including verbal and non-verbal systems, role expectations, strategies for culture learning and dynamics of change. Specific attention will be given to the implications for communicating the Christian message where understanding in a cross-cultural context has less to do with knowledge than with attitudes, sensitivities and adaptations.

ICS 6075
Building and Leading Effective Ministry Teams(3)

You will learn team dynamics, particularly the underlying principles of putting together and nurturing groups of people to accomplish ministry. Various aspects of team development will be studied including the cycle of team development, dealing with team conflict and leading a team. You will gain familiarity with group theory literature as part of the course. Special attention will be given to the dynamics of multicultural teams.

ICS 6084
Strategies for Evangelism and Church Planting.....(3)

In this course, you will study each biblical passage in which Jesus meets with His disciples in order to develop a comprehensive understanding of the tactics He used for ministry multiplication. You will then trace the replication of these tactics through the book of Acts. Finally, you will learn practical steps to implement these tactics within either of two contexts: the emerging church among unreached peoples, or the established church among reached peoples.

ICS 6085
Facilitating Church Planting Movements(3)

This course sharpens your strategic thinking, planning, and implementation skills for facilitating church planting movements. You assume the role of a strategy coordinator and propose a master strategy for a movement of churches planting churches among a specific population segment.

► THEOLOGY

THE 5030
Understanding Cultures and Worldviews(3)

This course will enable you to understand the philosophical assumptions which an individual uses in constructing the belief system by which he/she makes decisions about the world. It will help you construct a biblical worldview and provide you with the skills needed to analyze the culture and worldview of the people God has called you to reach. Special attention will be given to tools for understanding culture as an essential means of entry into cross-cultural ministry. (Also offered as ICS 5030.) (Also in online format.)

THE 6200
Historical Theology.....(3)

This course will provide a study of the historical development of Christian doctrine. Special attention will be given to the factors which have produced the ecclesiastical and theological diversity present in the contemporary Christian Church. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

THE 6300
Readings in World Theology(3)

This course will introduce you to the major theologians of the non-western world. You will read works of theologians from Latin America, Asia, and Africa and will analyze them for their contribution to a better understanding of systematic theology, for biblical viability, and for the way in which they engage the surrounding culture. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

THE 6310
Systematic Theology 1(3)

In this course you will explore the major divisions of theology (Prolegomena), the doctrine of the Bible (Bibliology), the doctrine of God (Theology Proper), the doctrine of Christ (Christology), and the doctrine of last things (Eschatology). You will gain experience in integrating what you learn into real world situations and in understanding how theological concepts are expressed differently across cultures. (Also in online format.)

THE 6320
Systematic Theology 2(3)

In this course you will explore those areas of theology especially relating to and serving as the foundation for the sanctification and Christian growth of the believer. Areas studied will include the doctrine of man (Anthropology), the doctrine of sin (Hamartiology), the doctrine of salvation (Soteriology), the doctrine of the Holy Spirit (Pneumatology), and the doctrine of church (Ecclesiology). The course particularly focuses on God's plan of transforming you into Christ's likeness and helping you experience godly living in today's world. (Also in online format.)

THE 6331
Contemporary Theological Issues(3)

The course will guide you through an overview of key theologians and theological movements of the 20th century as well as engaging you in a study of major issues within 21st century Evangelical and non-Evangelical Protestant theology. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

THE 6370
Eternal Destinies(3)

This course will guide you in a critical investigation of the doctrine of the afterlife, including a discussion of the views of world religions and several "Christian" cults, with particular emphasis being given to the biblical data on heaven and hell. Special attention will be devoted to the Evangelical doctrine of the afterlife, to recently proposed alternatives to the orthodox views, and to implications for your missiological responsibilities. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

THE 6430
Biblical Pre-evangelism: Engaging Contemporary Culture(3)

This course will help you develop a biblical approach to pre-evangelism, those ideas and factors which influence the way unbelievers grasp and respond to the gospel. You will study such topics as the psychology of unbelief, the place of general revelation, the role of theistic arguments, the problem of evil, the reliability of Scripture, and the reasonableness of miracles, especially the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The course will also help you develop a strategy for overcoming barriers to faith in Christ which are embedded in the way culture influences thinking. That strategy will enable you to use those barriers as springboards for the presentation of the gospel. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

THE 6500
Christian Social Ethics(3)

You will examine various approaches to ethical decision making and evaluate them against the teaching of Scripture. The goal of the course is to prepare you to deal with ethical issues which arise in Christian ministry, whether in the local church or in an intercultural setting. Issues examined will include capital punishment, just war, abortion, stem cell research, cloning, euthanasia and physician-assisted killing. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

THE 6700
Apologetics(3)

This course offers you an introduction to the area of Christian apologetics. Special attention will be given to the analysis and evaluation of outstanding models of apologetics, to problem areas, to common objections made to the Christian faith, and to evangelistic strategies in the postmodern world. (Offered as staffing and enrollment permit.)

THE 6950
Faculty Directed Study in Theology(1-3)

A faculty member will direct your study as you participate in a seminar or pursue research in an area of special interest.

THE 7650

BIB 6551
Jeremiah(3)

In this course you will examine the times, person, and ministry of the prophet Jeremiah. You will study selected texts exegetically and place them within a wider biblical-theological context. Special attention will be given to the tensions and afflictions which the prophet experienced and the divine grace which sustained him.

BIB 6560
Messiah in the Old Testament(3)

You will focus on the development of the concept of the Messiah throughout the Old Testament by pursuing exegetical studies within a broader hermeneutical, historical, and theological framework. The examination of relevant literature will help you develop your own approach to this important exegetical-theological theme.

BIB 6609
Luke(3)

Your study of Luke's presentation of the life and ministry of Jesus Christ will give special attention to the genre and structure of the gospel, Luke's use of the Old Testament, his understanding of salvation, the ethical implications of the gospel, and the meaning of Luke's message for missions and your personal life. Exegetical exercises will help you develop your skills in interpreting and teaching texts from the synoptic gospels.

BIB 6620
1 Corinthians(3)

Through the exegesis of selected passages and practical application of those passages, you will explore ways of solving problems related to divisions in the church. Special attention will be given to church discipline, lawsuits among Christians, Christian marriage in non-Christian environments, the celebration of the Lord's Supper, spiritual gifts and the meaning of Christ's resurrection.

BIB 6639
Thessalonian Epistles(3)

In this in-depth study of Paul's letters to the Thessalonians, you will trace major concepts, perform word studies, develop synthetic charts and develop interpretive skills. Special attention will be given to the significance of the letters for Christian conduct and ministry today.

BIB 6640
James(3)

In this exegetical study of James' letter, you will explore the historical background, content, message, and NT themes of the letter. You will also examine practical application for your daily life and for cross-cultural ministry.

BIB 6649
Pastoral Epistles(3)

In this exegetical study you will set Paul's pastoral letters against the background of apostolic times. Special attention will be given to the way in which Paul handled false doctrine, to the basic teaching on leadership and church growth, and to the application of the apostle's teaching to contemporary situations.

BIB 6679
Exegesis of 1 Peter (3)

► COURSES OFFERED ONLY IN INDEPENDENT FORMAT

BIB 5718

The Upper Room Discourse(1)

This in-depth study of Jesus' teaching to his disciples in John 13-17 gives you opportunity to view each passage in the light of its historical context and as foundational for the truths revealed in the episcles. Special attention will be given to the content of the discourse, the interpretive issues encountered, and the application of Jesus' teachings to your life.

BIB 6310

Progress of Redemption(3)

You will engage in a study of God's redemptive plan as it unfolds chronologically throughout the entire Bible. Special attention will be given to the methods God has employed and to the response He desires from His people.

HIS 6220

Early and Medieval Church(3)

You will survey the church's development and expansion from the New Testament era to the beginning of the Protestant Reformation. Special attention will be given to theological developments, patterns of expansion, significant leaders, movements and cultural impact.

HIS 6230

Reformation and Modern Church(3)

You will survey the Church's development from the Reformation to the present. Special attention will be given to the impact of the Reformation on the contemporary church, recent theological innovations, the emergence of modern denominations, and the impact of revivalism.

HIS 7710

American Christianity(3)

In this introductory study of American Christianity, you will examine the journey of the church in the United States through four centuries of its development. Special attention will be given to leaders, movements, issues and theological trends.

ICS 6068

China and Chinese Ministry(3)

This introductory overview of the Chinese world will enable you to explore options for service among the Chinese. Special attention will be given to the Chinese worldview, contemporary Chinese politics, the history of Chinese missions and the growth of the Chinese church.

THE 5110

Doctrine: Survey(3)

You will survey the 10 major areas of Christian theology, including the purpose and value of studying the Bible thematically. You will learn key biblical texts which are foundational to each doctrine.

THE 6268

The Theology of

Jonathan Edwards(3)

Taking a topical approach, this course examines the theology of Jonathan Edwards in detail. You will study Edwards' teachings on all the major topics of systematic theology with particular attention given to his unique contributions to Christian thought.
