

DECISION MAKERS MODULE • QUIZ

Relevancy

Each of the text blocks below contains a statement made by the Complainant or the Respondent in a new sexual assault case. For each statement, try to determine if it is Relevant, Directly Related, or Not Even Directly Related.

HearingRelevancy* Pop Quiz

Respondent: When I was touching Rush, Rush said “that feels amazing.”

Complainant: I’ve always wanted to be a doctor, and I’m planning to go to med school.

Respondent: We studied chemistry for about two hours before deciding to take a break.

Complainant: We ate dinner at Subway before going to Kai’s room.

Respondent: This process is even more stressful because my mom is going through breast cancer right now.

Complainant: The next day, Kai called me to apologize for what happened.

* Caution – Highly Context Dependent

Respondent: When I was touching Rush, Rush said “that feels amazing.”

Relevant

Complainant: I’ve always wanted to be a doctor, and I’m planning to go to med school.

Not Even Directly Related

Respondent: We studied chemistry for about two hours before deciding to take a break.

Directly Related

Complainant: We ate dinner at Subway before going to Kai’s room.

Directly Related

Respondent: This process is even more stressful because my mom is going through breast cancer right now.

Not Even Directly Related

Complainant: The next day, Kai called me to apologize for what happened.

Relevant

* Caution – Highly Context Dependent